'SHOOTS UP' FOUR IN DARK PATROL; FELLED BY SHOT

'Mystery Man' and Police Stage Wild Battle.

"Shooting up" four policemen in a dark patrol wagon, wherein he was being conveyed last night to the Desplaines street police station, may prove fatal to a man whose name is given as Frank Novak. He was shot through the head by Policeman Joseph Loftis after he had fired five shots in an attempt to kill all four of the policemen having him in charge.

The shooting occurred at Ashland avenue and Fry street, just after Novak realized he would have to spend a night in a cell if the patrol wagon arrived at its destination.

Seized with Girl

Novak had been arrested while in the company of Harriett Farnakas, who gave her address as 1323 Washington boulevard. Frank W. O'Malley, William Standbury, plain clothes policemen, found them at Madison and Madison streets and arrested the pair on a disorderly conduct charge. Novak protested.

"I'm a right guy," he said. "Let me talk to the lieutenant and we'll fix it all up."

"Sure," said O'Malley, and he searched the man. "You look all right. Tell it to the lieutenant."

Then the policemen called the wagon and turned the pair over to Policemen L. A. Sanders, John Sullivan, Joseph Loftis, and George Tapling, the driver. The woman was left at detention house No. 2, Oakley and North avenues, and the wagon started to Desplaines street station.

Cuts Loose with Revolver

"How much money have you?" asked Sullivan.

"Twenty dollars," Novak answered.

"Too bad," said Sullivan. "If you had $5 more you could bail yourself out."

"O," said Novak, "that's it. You're not going to let me see the lieutenant; you're going to book me after all."

Novak then drew a revolver which the plain clothes men had not found shot into the prisoner's hand and he began firing.

One bullet tore up Sanders' back, burning his uniform but doing no other damage. Another exploded in front of Sullivan's face, burned the policeman's cheeks and nose and hair and eyebrows.

Two more bullets shattered the windshield of the patrol and sprinkled the driver and Loftis, who sat next to him, with broken glass that cut slight gashes.

Novak now was at the back of the patrol, trying to get away. Sullivan and Sanders held his wrists, but he wrenched free, broke open the gate and started to run.

Loftis had jumped from the seat and taken out his revolver. When he saw Novak running, he fired. The bullet entered Novak's head.

Had Policeman's Plane Number. In the pocket of Novak the police found a note with the street address and telephone number of Patrolman Anton Blazewski of the West Chicago avenue station. Blazewski said he might have arrested the man, but could not remember any one by the name of Frank Novak. Blazewski will look at Novak and try to identify him today.

The police believe Novak is an alias. He gave his address as 1628 West Chicago avenue. There is no such number. Just before he was operated on Novak signed a name that looked like "George Beck."

In the pockets of the wounded man the police found a torn note addressed "Chick," 1446 School street.

"Dear Chick," it read, "this will instruct you to the bearer, who is a right guy and will do you a lot of good."

"Chick" is thought to be Christopher J. Hoff, 1446 School street; who was found to be in the Columbus Memorial hospital. Physicians said it would be necessary to amputate one of his arms. The police questioned him, but learned nothing regarding Novak.

Another scrap of paper found in Novak's possession bore the name of Frank Van Ordel.

Man's Identity Mystery. The Farnakas woman when questioned said she had met Novak only last night, although earlier she declared she had known him for three months.

Met from the detective bureau and the Desplaines street station went to the county hospital to look at Novak, but none could identify him.

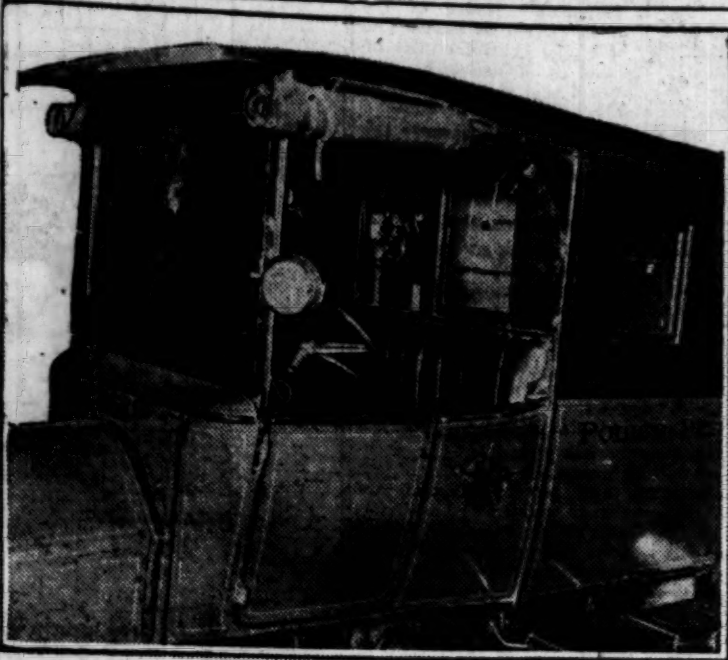

Chief Pittman called up Lieut. E. F. Daley when notified of the shooting and demanded a thorough investigation into every angle of the affair.

Girl Loses Part of Pay;

Missing, Mother Reports

The police were asked last night to look for Elizabeth Eilman, 16 years old, 1637 Washburne avenue. Her mother said the girl was employed as a clerk in a loop store and that friends told her the girl lost $11 of her salary and was afraid to return home.

THROUGH HAIL OF BULLETS

Patrol wagon of the Desplaines street station, riddled with bullets fired by Frank Novak, a prisoner who had been allowed to retain a revolver after his arrest. The bullet holes indicate how narrow was the escape from death of Chauffeur George Tapling and Patrolman Joseph Loftis, who rode with him on the driver's seat.

MRS. M. B. EDDY ALIVE IN CHURCH? COURT TO DECIDE

Lawyer Says She Still Is Leader.

Boston, Mass., April 5.—The question whether Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, founder of the Christian Science church, who died in 1910, is still an active officer of the church, was raised today for the courts to decide.

Edwin A. Krauthoff of Washington, appearing at a hearing in the Supreme court in one of the several phases of litigation involving the present government of the church, asked for an injunction to restrain any revision of the manual.

He said he desired a declaration by the court that Mrs. Eddy, its founder and the author of the manual, is an active officer of the church just as much as the board of directors are active officers.

Judge Can't Understand. Judge Braley remarked he did not see how such a condition could possibly exist.

The doctrines of the church and admissions by church officers, Mr. Krauthoff contended, will prove it.

The judge denied the motion for a temporary injunction, but indicated he would refer the question for fuller consideration to former Judge Frederic Dodge as master in chancery.

Mr. Krauthoff then requested that Mr. Dodge be required to pass on the status of Mrs. Eddy, and Judge Braley said he would consider that question on Friday.

Director Wins Point. The proceedings today were in connection with the effort of John V. Dittmore, who was ousted by the board of directors from that body, to prevent omission of his name as an officer of the church from a forthcoming new edition of the manual. It was agreed between counsel by stipulation that his name should not be removed for the present.

"FIFI" VANISHES AS BANKER PLANS TO BARE LETTERS

Missives Bear Interesting Details, Rumor Says.

New York, April 5.—[Special.]—The war is clear now for James A. Stillman to appeal from the decision of Justice Morschauer, granting temporary annual alimony, counsel fees, and expenses to Mrs. "Fifi" Stillman and her youngest son, Guy.

The court order, giving the banker three days to make initial payments, was served on his attorneys late today. They announced the notice of appeal will be filed tomorrow.

Mr. Stillman's appeal will be directed mainly to getting into the records the now famous "confession" letter Mrs. Stillman wrote to him, which Justice Morschauer excluded as a privileged document between husband and wife, and the Fred Beauvais letters to Mrs. Stillman.

Letters Basis of Scandal. The letters form the basis of Mr. Stillman's divorce action against Mrs. Stillman and involve the legitimacy of Guy Stillman and his right to inherit part of the Stillman millions.

One of the sealed letters, alleged to have been written by Beauvais, the guide, according to Westchester county gossip, contains homely references to sending some nice bacon and rolled omelets to "My Dearest Honey," along with "beaded moccasins for baby."

The same letter, according to rumor, contains references to the understanding that has come to the writer of "how it seems to be a father," and expressions of the paternal longing "to have baby in my arms, and you, too, dearest."

Rumors are prevalent that still other letters, alleged by the banker's side of the case to have come from Beauvais, told of four leaf clovers sent to "Dearest Honey" and carried expressions of undying love, "nice big hugs," and all affection for "little Guy."

The Indian Dreams. The said. Dreams of what a nice little family it will be—all sunshine and love—and said to be embodied with other epistles, though any authentic knowledge of their nature is not to be obtained, owing to the fact that the letters are still sealed from the public.

The whereabouts of Mrs. Stillman today are not known. One report is that she has gone to a summer camp in the mountains and another is that she has come to New York to reside in the handsome Park avenue apartment she recently leased.

With Mrs. Stillman when she left Lakewood, N. J., were Alex, 11, and Guy.

"Third Woman" in Case. A "third woman" in the divorce case is probably the woman met tonight, according to Mrs. Stillman's attorneys. It is expected she will be mentioned in her supplemental answer to her husband's charges.

According to one of the attorneys, this supplemental answer will be lurid enough to make all preceding papers in the case pale by comparison.

Mrs. Leeds is known as the "first woman." The "second woman" is the "woman of mystery," also a chorus girl, and the "third woman," it was said, was also a predecessor of Mrs. Leeds. Whether she is a Broadway show girl or a "society woman" was not learned.

McCormick Jr. Silent. Princeton, N. J., April 5.—[Special.]—Harold F. McCormick Jr., reported engaged to Miss Anne Stillman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Stillman, was found today in the Ivy club, a leading upper class eating place. He was asked to confirm the report of the engagement.

"I don't care to discuss it," he snapped. Pressed further, he said: "That's all. Good-by," and walked away.

Harold McCormick, in Chicago, denied yesterday that his son or has been engaged to Miss Stillman.

Viscount Astor, III, Quits Official Position

LONDON, April 5.—The resignation of Viscount Astor as parliamentary secretary to the ministry of health is officially announced. Viscount Astor has been in Egypt and is reported to be suffering from lung trouble.

Viscount Astor is the son of the late William Waldorf Astor.

VICTIM OF PARENTS' CLASH

MISS ANNE STILLMAN.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Stillman, principals in the famous New York divorce case, is now at Elkhart, Ind., spending her spring vacation with a school friend, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman G. Keays.

WASHINGTON NEWS —IN BRIEF—

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 5. While rejecting the Versailles treaty in favor of a separate peace with Germany along the lines of the Knox resolution, the president will present to congress next week, probably in person, a new policy to be known as the Harding doctrine, declaring the readiness of the United States to cooperate with European nations in any emergency threatening the peace of the world.

The Dawes special commission on soldier relief was asked today by President Harding to make diligent inquiry of all government department chiefs to discover where faults exist and improvement can be made.

Representative Kitchin will present a minority report from the house ways and means committee in opposition to the emergency agricultural tariff bill.

President Harding may call a joint conference of railroad officials and employees.

EVANSTON GIRL DIES OF POISON IN ANTIGO, WIS.

Antigo, Wis., April 5.—[Special.]—Ann Remington, 23, pretty University of Chicago graduate, who recently took a position as teacher in a public school here, was found dead in her room on Tuesday from the effects of chloroform, which she had swallowed a few minutes before.

The girl had been fuming at the home of Mrs. J. Sheehan here with another teacher, Miss Catherine Kiddo. Tuesday morning the Remington girl left the bedroom. When she failed to return Miss Kiddo entered the bathroom and found her body lying on the floor.

Langlade county officials are waiting the arrival of Mrs. H. H. Remington of Evanston.

HARDING PAYS TWO BITS FOR A ROUND OF GOLF

Washington, D. C., April 5.—[Special.]—Although Edward B. McLean, the president's friend, is building a $300,000 golf course on Friendship, his suburban estate, for the private use of Mr. Harding, his cabinet members and their intimate associates, the public golf course in Potomac park near the White House was good enough for the president today.

After many strenuous hours of work, which included a cabinet meeting, the president was eager to play a round. It was too late to motor to one of the suburban links and the president was reminded that for 25 cents he could play on the municipal links and could get there in five minutes.

The president thought it a great idea and at 5 o'clock, with Senator Hale, Maine, for a partner, he crossed the lot, approached the public coursekeeper, tendered his quarter, and trailed over the course behind government clerks and others who cannot join expensive golf clubs or be declared in on $300,000 private courses.

Seek to Take Odell, Baby Out of N. Y. Prison

Albany, N. Y., April 5.—[Special.]—A special bill has been introduced in the state senate to remove Gloria Odell, an infant from Auburn prison, where her mother is serving twenty years for murder.

The bill would place the child in the care of the nearest competent relative. The baby was born after her mother entered the prison. Her father is in the death chamber in Sing Sing for the same crime.

Gov. Miller also is considering an application to pardon Mrs. Odell.

U. of C. Medical Unit Gets Duluth Request of $50,000

Duluth, Minn., April 5.—Requests of $50,000 to the medical department of the University of Chicago and $25,000 to the Duluth Y. M. C. A. are included in the will of Alexander D. Thompson, Duluth capitalist, who died Feb. 7. The estate is valued at $3,531,100.

10,000 GREEKS LOST IN BATTLE AT ESKI-SHEHR

Turks Threaten Flank of Retreating Army.

BY HENRY WALES.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
[Copyright: 1921. By The Chicago Tribune.]
PARIS, April 5.—The entire Greek northern army on the Brusa front is beating a retreat, according to a dispatch received at the French foreign office via Constantinople.

The Greeks are reported to have lost 10,000 men and 300 officers in an unsuccessful drive against Eski-Shehr and the offensive against the Kemalists has been abandoned until reinforcements arrive from Asia Minor.

Irregular Turkish cavalry, offered by bolsheviks, is harassing the Greek retreat, charging the rear guards and capturing prisoners. The retreating Greeks are abandoning much material, including all that captured from the Turks during the advance from Brusa.

Threaten Greeks' Flank. Important masses of Turk cavalry, supported by Arab elements, is maneuvering for a raid around the right flank of the Greek south army which captured Afium Karahissar. Owing to the lack of fresh drafts it is expected the Greeks will be forced to abandon the entire section of the Bagdad railway occupied during the drive.

It is reported from Athens that several Greek generals, commanding units of the northern army, have been relieved of their commands and that Gen. Papoulas has been superseded.

King Constantine has summoned two new classes to the colors, but reports from points throughout Greece state that the reservists are failing to head the mobilization order, less than 50 per cent enrolling.

GREEK COMMUNICATION. LONDON, April 5.—A Reuter dispatch from Smyrna, quoting from a Greek official communication, says the Greeks have captured the railway station at Tchivril, which 2,000 Turks are said to have been holding for the purpose of cutting communications west of Uchak.

The dispatch adds that the battle at Eski-Shehr ended by the Greeks withdrawing to the point from which they began their attack, and the Turks did not hinder the withdrawal owing to their heavy losses.

Denies Prince's Death. PARIS, April 5.—[By the Associated Press.]—The Greek legation here today denied reports that Prince Andreas of Greece, brother of King Constantine, had died from wounds received while fighting in Asia Minor. Prince Andreas has not left Athens, the legation declared.

HOPE TO LOWER TAX BURDENS

Washington, D. C., April 5.—[Special.]—Headquarters for the taxation committee of the manufacturers and merchants were opened in Washington today. A campaign will be conducted in favor of the Ralston-Nolan tax bill.

The bill would cut by about 25 per cent the present federal tax burden on business, substituting a tax of 1 per cent on the privilege of holding land valued, after deducting all improvements, at more than $10,000. It is claimed that this tax would raise annually $1,000,000,000.

COAL STRIKE IN BRITAIN CAUSED BY WORLD WAR

Men Demand Uniform Wages Continue.

BY ROBERT R. McCORMICK.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
(Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.)
LONDON, April 5.—The serious political crisis confronting England is the direct outcome of the war. Prior to that time Germany and Belgium were large exporters of coal, particularly to France and Italy. France was supplied principally from her mines in the north.

The trench lines between Italy and Austria and across northern France shut off all this coal from the rest of the world at a time when much more coal was demanded in the allied countries than ever before.

To meet this great war need a special stimulus for the production of coal was furnished in the form of high prices and high wages. This stimulus was not unlike the government price for wheat established under Herbert Hoover in 1917 and 1918.

Wage Scale Before War.
Before the war the wages of the various British coal mining districts varied with the earning power of the mines. Miners of high grade coal in easily worked mines received more money in wages than the workmen in other mines. During the war, when the demand for British coal was unlimited and the price was enormous, a uniform wage scale for all miners was established. It is for the maintenance of this uniformity that the present strike has taken place.

At present there is a great over-production of coal in Europe. The French cannot use anything like the amount of coal that they are receiving from Germany under the peace treaty. It costs them nothing to produce and they can undersell and are underselling all other producers.

Too Much Coal in Belgium.
The Belgian mines, greatly developed under German occupation, are overproducing. I saw great mountains of coal piled up all over the country when I passed through recently.

The British mines, with their inefficient production and the existing wage scale, cannot compete with continental coal in the present market. With the government subsidy removed, as it just has been, the British mines for the major part of the coal close or must reduce their production costs. The miners fully realize this, but they think that the government should pay them the difference between the earning power of the mines and their former wages. It is to obtain this subsidy that they are striking.

A Blow at Downing Street.
The coal mining industry is believed to be the cornerstone of British commercial prosperity. The miners believe that they can pull out this cornerstone and let the building collapse. Indeed their leaders are using the illustration of Samson in the temple. They believe that under the threat of universal destruction the nation will surrender.

I was told yesterday by a prominent official that the miners number about 1,000,000 and that the railway men and dock laborers total another 1,000,000. Counting a family of five for each worker there are 10,000,000 in the triple alliance, or one quarter of the population. Economically this one-quarter dominates the country. If the remaining three-quarters are united they can by the exercise of the powers of the government—namely, the use of force, compel the production of coal and the operation of transportation. This in turn, if the miners are united, amounts to civil war.

Bewhiskered specimens of the less deadly of the species, who would be shorn of facial lace curtains in the most gentle manner possible, will rejoice to learn that the Lady Barbers' college opened Monday at 1428 South Wabash avenue—the first of its kind in the United States. The dean is Mrs. Nellie Owen, who has been a lady barber for twenty-one years. The picture shows her instructing a group of freshmen lady barbers in the art of bobbing Charles Lawrence's hair. The students are, from left to right, Miss Mary Sampson, Mrs. Nora Clark, Mrs. Frank Blake, and Miss Margaret Lawrence.

SUPREME COURT KILLS BAN ON MONEY SENDERS

"Forwarders" to Seek State Control.

The state Supreme court decided yesterday that section 15 1/2 of the banking law of 1919 is unconstitutional. That section prohibited forwarders of money from operating, other than express, steamship, and telegraph companies. These were exempted by the law.

There are fifty-four other individuals and concerns in Chicago which transmit money to foreign countries which joined in this suit, started by former Gov. Deneen.

Mr. Deneen said last night that these fifty-four business concerns promised Judge Scanlan that they would ask the attorney general and the state auditor to join them in getting a law regulating their business. That promise, the former governor said, will be carried out at once.

"Older Business than Banking."
It was Mr. Deneen's contention that his clients do not do a banking business, although banks transmit money. He contended that banks do other than a strictly banking business as real estate business, bond business, insurance business, and trust business. He asserted that because the banks do an insurance business they cannot prohibit others doing an insurance business.

"We are in favor of regulation, not extermination," said Mr. Deneen last night. "These forwarders of money are not bankers and do not desire to use the word bank in connection with their business, but they do not want banks to put them out of business. The forwarding of money is probably an older business than banking, and some of the men engaged in that business in Chicago have not only established reputations but are prominent in the commercial affairs of the city."

Rest of Law Stands.
All other sections of the 1919 banking act remain in force. It was primarily designed to make all private

The college opened Monday at 1428 South Wabash avenue with ten students and a dozen more applicants. Mrs. Owen expects to enlarge the shop with thirty more chairs.

Students are given hair cutting and shaving training on patrons. They have organized a sorority.

"Women ought to become barbers, because the work is lighter and easier than other occupations," Mrs. Owen declared. "Waitresses, for instance, have to walk miles every day carrying loads of dishes. Barbers have a chance to rest."

SCOTCH MINERS BATTLE POLICE, FLY RED FLAG

Britain Nearing Crisis in Coal Strike.

by a crisis as grave as any we faced during the war.

"Forces may be loosed which it would be difficult either to control or to withdraw."

"This dispute might easily end in a national convulsion attended by disorder, violence, and class war, from which disruption and collapse of the state speedily would be threatened."

"No government can yield to such a menace. In such a case the government would cease to be the nominee of any party or coalition of parties."

"It would become the trustee and guardian of the liberties and rights of the nation and a committee of society to protect society from destruction."

"The British government will grasp any and every opportunity for conciliation. The door is open and it never has been shut, but on the main principle of state subsidy and control."

"On these points there will be no surrender."

Defends Miners' Cause.
Duncan Graham, one of the coal miners' parliamentary leaders, threw the gauntlet down to the government in the house of commons tonight by declaring that, although the government might pass regulations calling out the black and tans in the mining districts, they would not get any extra coal in this way.

If the government compelled the miners to accept the mine owners' wage offer, he said, the government could not compel the miners to produce any more coal than they were willing to produce.

"As a responsible leader of the miners I am prepared to advise you that they will take control of the industry themselves, if necessary, and will regulate all coal coming into the market and its price," he contended.

"These men cannot live under the proposed wage conditions and they might as well starve as starve working."

Violence in Scotland.
The situation in some of the Scotch coal fields is becoming serious. At Salford miners were compelled by strikers to quit pumping. There has been rioting at the Benhar colliery, where 500 men headed by pipers marched to the pithead and injured four policemen and several workers and burned a number of haystacks.

The situation in south Wales grows increasingly grave and by the withdrawal of pumpmen the Glamorgan, Cambrian, and naval collieries are threatened with disaster.

Prime Minister Lloyd George late this evening spoke for twenty minutes in the house of commons. The main point made was that the government is anxious that the miners and mine owners resume negotiations and that the government was willing to participate in these discussions, subject to two conditions:

First—that there should be no subsidy granted by the state, and, secondly, that government control of the mining industry would not be resumed.

Nine Bishops Join Protest Against Irish Conditions
LONDON, April 5.—Indorsing the Archbishop of Canterbury's recent protest in the house of lords against reprisals in Ireland, nine bishops and heads of the principal nonconformist churches in Great Britain have sent a letter to the premier and Irish secretary, pleading for peace in Ireland.

"The present policy," the letter says, "exposes us to misunderstanding and hostile criticism, even of the friendliest of nations."

The signatories include the "moderator of the Scottish United Free church," and the chairman of the Congregational and Baptist unions of Scotland, the Wesleyan, Methodist, and Presbyterian churches, and the Society of Friends.

CHARLES NEARS EXILE HOME IN SWITZERLAND

Troops Guard Ex-King Across Austria.

VIENNA, April 5.—[By the Associated Press.]—Announcement was made this evening by the foreign office that former Emperor Charles, who had been at Steinhilber, arrived today at Vienna, where he went aboard the Austrian train bound for Switzerland. Charles entered his compartment in the train at 2:45 o'clock this afternoon, and had to wait for some time. In the meantime he had remained in the private car which had brought him from Steinhilber.

Two Ministers Resign. The train left Vienna at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon, and it is reported that the former monarch will reach the Swiss frontier early on Wednesday. The Viennese government is breathing easier since Charles has started on his journey to exile. His visit, however, has resulted in two portfolios being vacated. Minister of War Mueller and Minister of the Interior Glas have resigned. Both of them objected to a volunteer guard being placed over Charles, claiming this was an indignity to the former emperor.

"I'm Coming Back."—Charles. LONDON, April 5.—[By the Associated Press.]—Prior to his departure from Steinhilber, former Emperor Charles expressed the conviction that he would return within a short period, and he was determined to do all in his power to bring about such a change of view in Europe as to make this possible. Charles has been the subject of a number of reports in the London Times. He drew up the following declaration, which it is understood, will be published tomorrow by the Budapest government.

"His majesty leaves the country because of his conviction that the moment has not yet come for him to take over his right of governing. He cannot permit maintenance of his right to rule to be disturbed in the present state of peace. He leaves the land as the crowned king of Hungary."

JUGO-SLAVIA MOBILIZES

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.] (Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.) VIENNA, April 5.—It is reported that Jugo-Slavia is mobilizing against Hungary and that Budapest is much alarmed, as it fears Jugo-Slavia will demand that Funtikichen (a city 105 miles southwest of Budapest) be given as a pledge until the Trianon treaty is completely ratified. Other reports state that the little entente has given Jugo-Slavia a mandate over Funtikichen and that Jugo-Slav troops are advancing toward the city.

Representatives of the little entente have received orders to transmit an ultimatum to Hungary fixing the time at which their demands must be executed.

Aliens Taken In by False Passports to Be Taken In

Washington, D. C., April 5.—[Reuter.]—Immigrants sent back to Europe because they arrived with fraudulent passports will be permitted to return with proper passports, if investigation discloses that they are worthy to come and were imposed upon by unscrupulous agents abroad.

This was announced at the state department today in correcting a report that hundreds sent back have been ordered returned. The persons referred to were chiefly wives and children of men now in the United States.

AMERICA'S PEACE PROGRAM SUITS VIVIANI, HE SAYS

Is Dinner Guest at White House.

Washington, April 5.—René Viviani, now on a mission to the United States as an envoy extraordinary of France, was the guest of President and Mrs. Harding at a dinner in his honor at the White House tonight.

Ambassador and Madame Jusserand were also present, as were Vice President and Mrs. Coolidge, Speaker and Mrs. Gillett, Secretary and Mrs. Hughes, Senator Lodge, chairman of the relations committee; Representative Porter, chairman house foreign affairs committee; Under Secretary of State and Mrs. Fletcher, and Myron T. Herrick of Ohio, prominently mentioned as the next ambassador to France.

In a statement to the Associated Press today M. Viviani indicated that he had not yet abandoned the treaty of peace as a basis of discussion with American officials in connection with his mission of presenting the cause of France and sounding American public opinion on foreign policies.

The statement follows: "M. Viviani, who since his arrival in Washington has been received by numerous notables, has been greatly touched by the cordiality which all have shown to him, a cordiality which was extended through him to France, of which he is the representative. "He has heard much and has responded as best he could in view of his mission, which is to inform the American people of the condition of France and to inform himself concerning American opinion."

"He has observed with deep feeling in the course of the legal and political discussions which involved the treaty of peace, a unanimous sentiment favorable to France, for which, in recognition of her past valiance and present difficulty, all America has preserved its affection."

"In the course of these different conferences and for the sole purpose of conversation, M. Viviani has been obliged to envisage every hypothesis, even those which his opinion opposes, to the end of weighing with his conferees the elements of good and evil in them all."

"It should be clearly understood that the only opinion which could be expressed of these is that which he gives expression to himself and it is equally certain that no one would think of attributing to him conclusions as a result of these discussions which, though drawn, are not his own."

"The impression which M. Viviani has brought away from these conferences, and which has been no surprise to him, is the disinterested and pure friendship of America, and M. Viviani will never be able adequately to express with what appreciation France regards the noble country which is now his host."

INSANE MAN LEAPS TO DEATH. Kankakee, Ill., April 5.—Samuel Winkler of Chicago, a patient in the State hospital, leaped head foremost down a dust chute today, killing himself.

POLICE GUNS RAKE FLEEING AUTO; 4 CAUGHT

Two Suspects in Stolen Car Wounded.

After a motor chase through the stockyards district and the firing of several volleys, Lieut. William Schoemaker of the detective bureau and his squad, captured four alleged auto thieves yesterday afternoon. They slightly wounded two of them.

Schoemaker and his men—Michael Grady, Fred Fraser, Pat Murphy, Albert Wachholz, and William Gail—were at Thirty-seventh and Halsted streets when they saw an automobile that had been stolen yesterday morning from Morris Raskin, 4330 South Ashland avenue.

They gave pursuit, gall ringing the police going to the fugitives know who they were. The car ahead turned east when it reached Forty-third street, speeding up. The police car overtook it at Emerald avenue and tried to brush it in toward the curb. The chauffeur of the smaller car, however, turned the machine into Emerald avenue.

Ordered to Fire. "Stop your car or we'll fire," "Shoot and be damned," was the reply.

Schoemaker motioned to Fraser. He took up the shotgun. Grady was out on the running board, revolver in hand. All took aim.

Eleven bullets tore through the sides of the car. Two of them tore off the chauffeur's cap, and another, which had gone through a piece of metal, flattened out behind his ear, making a bruise. Four buckshots went through the cap of another man.

Chauffeur Hit; Surrenders. The chauffeur brought the car to a sudden stop and leaped out. Grady shot him in the arm, making a wound that was not dangerous. He surrendered.

Frank Spitero, 2518 Lowe avenue, graduate of Pontiac, was the chauffeur. The others in the stolen car were Eddie Fiddell, 2508 West Thirty-first street, who was the leader of a gang; Walter O'Leary, 2812 Emerald avenue; John Smith, also believed to be a member of the gang, had been arrested before the others and was a prisoner in the police car at the time of the shooting.

NEW AMERICAN CARDINAL GUEST OF ALLIED UNION

PARIS, April 5.—Cardinal Dougherty today was the guest of honor at a luncheon given by the Inter-Allied union, of which Marshal Foch is president. Among the sixty guests were Hugh C. Wallace, the American ambassador; Consul General Thackara, and James Hagen Hyde. The French guests included Marshal Joffre, Gen. Mangin, Cardinal Du Bois, the Marquis De Chambrun, and Col. Philippe Buns-Vallée.

The cardinal will sail for New York tomorrow on board the Olympic.

HUGHES' NOTE ON WAR BILL KILLS BERLIN'S HOPES

Only Ray of Light Is Knox Resolution.

BY GEORGE SELDES.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.] (Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.) BERLIN, April 5.—Berlin's hopes of friendly actions from the Harding administration, which were hit hard recently, are now crumbling under what is considered a drumfire attack in the statements of Hughes, Knox, Viviani, and Luzzanne as reported in the German press.

The official as well as popular feeling now is that friendliness cannot be expected from America, but there still persists the impression that a "fairer deal" will result when relations are resumed. This especially was the view of those officials connected with the indemnity question.

Hope in Knox Resolution. I talked with one of the most important leaders of the London delegation. After saying that the reparations question is not so stagnant as generally believed, the official declared the Knox peace resolution would certainly directly affect the coming reparations discussion.

"Although we have neither plans for the resumption of the conference nor a program, which America might consider, for arranging to pay the indemnity through American intervention," declared the official, "we believe that America will participate in the forthcoming dealings if only to protect her own interests."

As a Business Proposition. "Leaving aside the question of friendliness, America is in a position from a purely business standpoint to lighten Europe's burdens, successfully conclude arrangements, and at the same time to protect her own billions in loans to the allies."

"Should America, following the conclusion of a peace treaty, invite the entente and Germany to reopen negotiations, she would find Germany ready. The present situation, however, precludes either side from making the first move, both declaring that absolutely the last word was said at London and that a compromise is impossible."

FRENCH OFFICIALS PLEASED.

PARIS, April 5.—[By the Associated Press.]—The reply of the United States to Germany on the reparations question has given the greatest satisfaction to French official circles, where it is regarded as finally closing the door to all escape by Germany from meeting her liabilities under the treaty of Versailles.

Premier Briand is expected to make an allusion, in a speech in the senate this afternoon, to this and other matters of interest to the United States.

Britain Sees German Failure. LONDON, April 5.—[By the Associated Press.]—Although the British government has not received in full from the British representatives in Berlin the note sent by Secretary of State Hughes to Berlin on the German reparations question, the official British opinion is, it was learned today, that Germany failed miserably in her attempt at a new method of solving the reparations problem—that of approaching America for assistance.

British officials gather from press reports that Secretary Hughes' note indicates a refusal by the United States to be a party to any German attempt to escape responsibility for the war and reparations payments. It is believed here that Germany's next move will be a direct approach to the allies.

IF BERLIN FAILS TO PAY, FRANCE WILL MAKE HER

Premier Briand Pledges Summary Action.

BY HENRY WALES.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.] (Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.) PARIS, April 5.—In the most forceful manner Premier Aristide Briand this evening in the French senate pledged himself to apply the sternest coercion upon Germany after May 1 unless the Teutons had satisfied the treaty provisions concerning disarmament, punishment of the war guilty, and reparations.

With outstretched hand, as if he were taking an oath, M. Briand shouted: "Unless Germany gives satisfaction on these three counts you may rely upon me that a strong hand will seize Germany by the scruff of the neck." The senate cheered his statement uproariously.

"Coercion Will Convince."

M. Briand argued that since Germany refused the Paris agreement, only the Versailles treaty remained. He explained to the senate that the greatest difficulty in the reparations settlement lay in the fact that Germany has not admitted her defeat. Military coercion would convince her, he said.

The premier said that certain of the allies would be aligned with France in exerting the strictest coercion after May 1.

Franc-American cooperation in the treatment of the Russian question was urged in the senate by Senator Henry Jouvonen, editor of Le Matin.

May Throw Sop to U. S.

The United States' answer to Moscow's offer to resume trade demanded guarantees for the safety of persons and property which M. Jouvonen thinks it possible that Russia will grant for the sake of trade with the United States. The French view of the Russian problem is exactly the same as America's.

M. Jouvonen argued that the greatest mistake on the reparations question was in making it Franco-German instead of international. He said a similar mistake would be made if the Russian problem was treated piecemeal.

He demanded that France instruct M. Viviani to ask the United States to unite with France in not allowing concession hunters to secure Russian property which was really France's security.

M. Jouvonen referred to America in the friendliest of terms and he aroused hearty cheers when he said, "America sent millions of men to wage war beside us, but unfortunately she sent only one to make peace."

VICTIM OF "NERVES" VANISHES. Search is being made for Joseph Ougra, 1314 West Eighteenth place, who disappeared Saturday while suffering from a nervous ailment.

There's more material worth in goods and workmanship in our $45 clothing than it is usually thought necessary to put into suits at this price.

That's because we're fussy, proud of our standing, and insist.

But aside from that, there is another value in them which no amount of money will buy in anything if it isn't in the imagination of the man responsible for the creation of the thing purchased—the value of a spirited appearance, character, smartness, distinction—whatever you like to have it called.

It's in these suits at $45 just as it is in Capper & Capper suits at $85.

BRITAIN SAYS U. S. OIL NOTE IS INCONSISTENT

Cites Mexico in Reply on Mesopotamia.

LONDON, April 5.—American contentions for equality of treatment for the citizens of all nations in mandated territory are held by the British government to be "scarcely consistent" with the attitude of the United States toward American oil interests in Mexico. The British view is expressed in a long reply to Secretary Colby's note of last Nov. 20, which was made public here today.

The note, signed by Lord Curzon, secretary of state for foreign affairs, was delivered March 1 and was in answer to Secretary Colby's exceptions to the San Remo agreement between Great Britain and France, relating to the petroleum resources in Mesopotamia. The Mesopotamian agreement was said by Lord Curzon to be subject to oil concessions in the vilayets in Bagdad and Mosul granted to British interests before the war and not to be treated "merely as a matter of abstract principle," without reference to pre-war negotiations. Rights acquired in Palestine by the Standard Oil company "are no stronger" than these British rights, the note added.

Cites Philippine Mineral Law. Request of the American government that British rights thus acquired be disregarded, Lord Curzon added, was "scarcely consistent" with the attitude "adopted by the United States in regard to similar United States' interests in oil properties in Mexico."

The British note expresses agreement with the American argument that the world's oil resources should be open for development without reference to nationality, but notes that an act of the Philippine legislature in 1920 reserves development of public mineral lands there to citizens of the United States or the Philippines. Such legislation cannot but be regarded "as in contradiction of the general principle enunciated by the United States."

What Colby Told Obregon. Reverting to the American attitude toward American oil interests in Mexico, the British note cited Mr. Colby's letter of Nov. 25, 1920, to Roberto V. Pasquerra, representative of the new Mexican government in Washington. In that communication, it said, Mr. Colby "expressed particular satisfaction at the statements made in Mr. Pasquerra's letter, then under reply, to the effect that President de la Huerta and President Elect Obregon had de-

MYSTERY OF ROOM 734 REMAINS MYSTERY AS COURT DELAYS TRIAL

The story of what happened Monday night in room 734 of the Atlantic hotel was not told yesterday in Judge Arnold Heap's Morale court because—well, because the attorney representing Edward J. Novak Jr., son of the former alderman of the 14th ward, asked time to prepare his case. No testimony was taken.

Novak, James Delaney, 4718 North Racine avenue; Mrs. May Delaney, his wife; Betty Cunningham of 4612 Sheridan road, whose name appeared as Marie Reuthe on the clerk's sheet, and Earl Bland, 4642 North Racine avenue, all gave evidence of relief when the judge continued the case until April 29. Delaney when arrested told the police his wife had been away from home Sunday night; that she had admitted it to him, and that she had accompanied him to the hotel and pointed out Novak as her companion of the evening previous.

"The trouble started just after Delaney entered the room," said the policeman who made the arrest. The room was in wild disorder when the police arrived. Chairs were broken, tables overturned, curtains torn from their rods, and dresser drawers strewn about the place.

clered article 27 of the Mexican constitution "is not and must not be interpreted as retroactive or violative of valid property rights."

"It is not easy, therefore," Lord Curzon said, "to justify the United States government's insistence that American control should now be extended to resources which may be developed in mandated territories and that, too, at the expense of the subjects of another state who have obtained a valid concession from the former government of those territories."

NEGRO AUTHOR TO SPEAK. The Rev. Sutton E. Griggs, negro author and civil worker of Memphis, Tenn., will give an address tonight at Pilgrim Baptist church, Thirty-third street and Indiana avenue.

HUGHES SENDS STRONG NOTE ON YAP TO ALLIES

Emphasizes Stand Taken by Wilson Regime.

BY A. L. BRADFORD.

Washington, D. C., April 5.—[United Press.]—A new note has been sent to the principal allied powers by Secretary of State Hughes protesting against their attitude on mandate territories, it was learned today.

The note, it was stated authoritatively, was dispatched last night and is understood to have gone to Great Britain, France, Japan, and possibly to Italy. It is the first formal statement of the position of the Harding administration on the mandate question, and its dispatch comes as a natural confirmation of the recent authoritative pronouncement that the United States will insist on the recognition of the rights and interests of America in the territories and resources divided.

The note is understood to deal specifically with the stand of the United States on the island of Yap controversy. The position taken is that the United States never gave its assent definitely or tacitly that Yap be included in the Japanese mandate over the Pacific islands.

It has been the contention of Japan that while President Wilson in one of the preliminary meetings at the Paris peace conference made a reservation regarding Yap, he failed to raise any protest at the final meeting when the Japanese mandate for the Pacific islands, including Yap, was formally approved. The Hughes note is understood to go farther than the Wilson note and to state the American position in unmistakable terms.

DANIEL R. HANNA, FOR THE FOURTH TIME, DIVORCED

Pittsfield, Mass., April 5.—[Special.]—For the fourth time in his sixty years, Daniel R. Hanna of Yorktown Heights, N. Y., son of the late Senator Mark A. Hanna, Ohio, was a defendant today in a divorce action.

The petitioner, Mrs. Molly Covington Hanna, formerly of Ocean Grove, N. J., was given a superior court decree on grounds of intoxication.

Judge Frederick W. Foodick found charges of cruel and abusive treatment not sustained. The action was uncontested. Petitioner sought no alimony, which has led to reports tonight that the defendant settled for $500,000 cash besides the 1,000-acre estate at Stockbridge, valued at another $500,000, which Mr. Hanna deeded to his bride six weeks after their wedding in Canaan, Conn., Oct. 23, 1916. Mrs. Hanna is 45 years old.

REPORT ON 8 HOUR DAY IS READY FOR U. S. STEEL CHIEF

Finding Secret; Gary, in City, Is Sphinx.

By ARTHUR M. EVANS.

"Three shifts in steel," an absorbing question in industry, is moving toward a showdown. A report from a committee of iron-makers which has been investigating the feasibility of the eight hour day will be placed before Elbert H. Gary, head of the United States Steel corporation, shortly after his return to New York.

Mr. Gary, accompanied by Mrs. Gary, reached Chicago yesterday en route for home after a swing through the Panama canal. He was affable, but non-committal. "Not a word on business in politics," he said.

Report Due April 15-25.

The report on whether iron and steel should be swung from a two shift basis to a three shift is expected to be presented somewhere between April 15 and 25. Last fall Mr. Gary appointed a committee of presidents of subsidiary companies, with W. B. Schiller, president of the National Tube company, Pittsburgh, as chairman, to study and report whether the eight hour day is feasible and how and when it could be made effective.

From time to time there has been much speculation as to the findings. From New York reports were set about recently that the report would be favorable, and that Mr. Gary would announce a change to an eight hour day most any day. On the other hand, from other sources word has come that the committee of operators were having difficulties in the way of installation and that the report might be adverse, largely on the theory that the men themselves do not wish the change.

Adverse Arguments Now Up.

Whether of these conjectures prove right, the fact remains all the main arguments advanced against the shorter workday have blown up. Steel is the last great basic industry to stick to the old twelve hour day, and America, oddly enough, is the last great manufacturing country in which the two shift day in steel is still in vogue.

The steel corporation itself is officially on record as against the twelve hour day and the seven day week, for back in 1912 a committee of stockholders, headed by Thomas De Witt Cuyler of Philadelphia, said the twelve hour day "means a decreasing of efficiency and a lessening of the vigor and virility of the men," and urged that hours be shortened.

Andrew Carnegie, too, argued for eight hours—eight hours for work, eight for sleep, eight for rest and recreation. Mr. Gary, likewise, before senate committees, has appeared favorably, theoretically, at any rate, to the shorter day, and if it had not been for the war and later the steel strike it is quite probable it would have dawned in America as in Europe and England. Argument number one against the

SAVED FROM THE BUTCHER

Miss Ida Raymond of 2478 Lincoln avenue is so fond of lambs that when she saw two in a butcher shop she couldn't bear to think of their being slaughtered to make an Easter dinner. She is shown in the above picture with her two pets, Bob and Betty.

The lambs' gambol is being held early this year in Chicago. Two of them are gamboling all the time these days on the lawn of Miss Ida Raymond at 2478 Lincoln avenue.

"I love lambs on the green," Miss Raymond says, "even more than I love them with greens. These two had been tentatively invited to be three-shift basis has been "shortage of available labor." This has been bowled off its pegs by the extended period of depression in industry. It is pointed out that with steel and iron languishing, the immediate effect of installing the eight hour day would be to spread work more evenly for men now out of jobs in the industry itself. Then, as industry in general begins to speed up, steel and iron, so far as available labor goes, would be about in the same position as other industries, no better and no worse.

Three Shifts Costly.

Argument number two has been that of "additional cost." Engineers point out steel wages will undoubtedly follow other wages downward as commodity prices and living costs recede. Argument number three has been that the men themselves wish the long day because of the large pay. This has undoubtedly been largely due to alien labor, which has sought to pile up wealth to take back to the old country. A senate committee, after investigating the steel strike, said a majority of the workers oppose the twelve hour day.

GERMANY STIRS WEEKS' IRE IN BERGDOLL CASE

Washington, D. C., April 5.—[Special.]—Reports from Germany that the German government had conditioned the release from prison of American Army Sergeant Zimmer and Neuf on the promise that Grover Cleveland Bergdall, American draft dodger, would not be molested further, were emphatically denied here today.

Secretary of War Weeks said such a report was nonsense. "There were no conditions whatever to the release of these men," he said.

Erwin Stays in Jail.

Topeka, Kas., April 5.—Efforts of Erwin R. Bergdoll, Philadelphia draft evader, to obtain his release from the army disciplinary barracks at Leavenworth, were defeated today when Federal Judge Pollock denied Bergdoll's application for a writ of habeas corpus.

Bergdoll's attorneys contended the record of Bergdoll's trial did not show he ever received personal notice that he had been drafted.

Judge Pollock held that it was up to the man drafted to receive his mail.

LABOR NOTES

PORTLAND, Ore.—The Spokane, Portland and Seattle railway has notified all of its employees that, effective April 13, wage reductions equivalent to the increases granted last summer will be made.

DENVER, Colo.—Building contractors have begun employing nonunion workmen, following cessation of building operations since March 31, because of the unions refusing to accept a wage reduction of 10 to 15 per cent. Two thousand carpenters, bricklayers, painters, plasterers, and lathers are affected.

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—Rejection of the wage cut, proposed by the Pennsylvania railroad, was the answer given by R. H. Grim, who represented the American Federation of Railroad Workers at yesterday's conference with the managers' committee of the road.

Three mills of the McKeesport plant, American Sheet and Tin Plate company, have resumed and three others will reopen at once, officials announced. They said orders for material warranted resumption.

WILL THE BUILDING TRADES BUILD?

While the building trades in the Chicago district are completing their referendum vote upon the question of accepting a wage cut of 20 per cent to stimulate building, provide jobs where there are no jobs, and provide homes where there are no homes, we would like to call their attention to two items in the news.

"If building costs come down a reasonable degree I believe money can be found for building loans to any amount," says Melvin A. Traylor, president of the First Trust and Savings bank.

A 50 per cent reduction in the prices of building brick was announced by the Missouri Pressed Brick and Improvement company in St. Louis on Monday.

These two items will support a prophecy if the building trades assist. The cost of materials has decreased; not enough, but some. If demand increases, thus reducing overhead expense, these costs can come down still more. The cost of financing building will also come down with the cost of construction. If the trades unions do their part they, with the entire community, will profit.

WHY IS AN AMATEUR?

Vernon Parks, University of Michigan baseball player, played summer ball on the Pacific coast because he needed money. That has been discovered and it disqualifies Parks as an amateur. He cannot play ball this spring with the Michigan team.

If Parks had been a restaurant waiter, a janitor, book salesman, a tango teacher, or almost anything else during the summer he would not have lost his athletic standing, but he would not have made much money. He is a good ball player and as such could make considerable money playing with minor teams.

He was a student of the university in good standing. He was not there because he could play ball.
He was not taking a course in penmanship or music in order to win ball games for Michigan. He was one of the many young men in the universities who are not sent to school with plenty of father's money behind them.

If you have a boy ambitious enough to go to school and rely on himself, at least for part of the money needed, and vigorous enough and diligent enough to play good baseball, you are likely to have a pretty fine young American, the kind you would want to encourage.

We know that American schools had a rotten period in athletics when professionals were matriculated, frequently with the knowledge of the faculty, to win contests. Students were enticed from small colleges to universities and were supported because they were good football players, baseball players, or trackmen. Jiggs Donahue, the old White Sox player, who was so well liked, played for several years for an Ohio college. We have forgotten what he studied at school, probably penmanship. The same college lost a crack pitcher to Amherst and a crack 100 yards man to Princeton, losing them in the same fashion in which it gained Donahue.

If there had not been a cleaning out of college sports they would have become just hippodrome with no relation to college life. The most money would have gone to the best professionals. We sym-patize with the rules which protect the college game for the college men, but the definition of an amateur can work an injustice, as we believe it does in excluding boys who might play semi-professional or professional ball in the summer for money to carry them through school.

We may be, in this, pretty close to the English tradition that an amateur is a man of wealth and leisure who takes to sports for amusement and who cannot be contaminated by contact with men who make money out of sports. There ought not to be any natural sympathy in America for that, but we get some of our sporting traditions from England and may have more of this particular than we realize.

We do not see any reason why a boy working his way through school should not play baseball in vacation if that is the thing that he can make the most money. That is not paying him for his services in college contests. So long as financial recompense is kept out of the college sports a professional will not be found in college to play ball.
The only reason he ever was there was because some one paid him money to play college ball.

Playing summer ball does not change the fact that a student is a student. It does not disqualify him as a student. A rule which prevents him from making money in the way he can make it most easily is a caste rule, whether we realize it or not.
It recognizes a distinction of wealth and is an injury to the boy who does not have much money.
It is a part of the idea that money taints a gentleman if he earns it in a sport to which gentlemen bring their wealth. That is not a very good idea for American universities.

It is not necessary to throw off all restrictions in granting college boys a greater freedom. Even now they occasionally take a chance, as Parks did, tempted by the money, and risk their amateur standing in the hope that they will not be found out. That isn't a good thing, but there would be no harm if they could openly and honestly make use of their talent during vacation.

There is not much excuse for the amateur class anyway. There is a great deal of reason for keeping college sports confined to boys who are in college, honestly there for what the college can give them. Amateur is merely another name for inferiority. The distinction is one maintained by inferior men to protect their status from the abilities of the really expert. The only valid question in a college is whether the boy is a real, genuine student, not whether he is a professional or not, or whether by the shading of a rule he could be called one.

REUNITE THE FLEET.

Secretary of the Navy Denby returned from the maneuvers on the destroyer Pruitt after a nonstop run from Santo Domingo, 1,600 miles, average speed 25 knots. We learn that he has "sea legs" worthy enough for a tossing, plunging destroyer, a sun-browned countenance, and a sailor's cap tilted jauntily on his head.

Which is very well as far as it goes. But it doesn't go far. Asked what he proposed to do about uniting the fleet, he replied: "Haven't decided that yet. We'll get to it later."

With all due respect to Mr. Denby's physical condition, which, we trust, will remain good, we beg leave to remind him that what is important in a secretary of the navy is not what he has on his head, but in it. Mr. Denby's legs may be seaworthy and his lungs well filled with Atlantic winds, but his dealing with the divided fleet question does not indicate a corresponding vigor above the collar. On the contrary, his optimism and his jaunty evasion of the principal strategic duty before him is unpleasantly reminiscent of the late Mr. Daniels.

Has Mr. Harding been unfortunate enough to happen on a second Daniels? The laws of chance are surely all against it, and we certainly shall resist the unpleasant suggestion as long as possible. But Mr. Denby's beginnings are ominous.
There is no excuse for procrastination on an issue as clear as the division of the fleet. It is not a problem he needs time to consider. The question is simply whether he proposes to play politics with the fleet, as Daniels did, or follow the dictates of common sense and strategic principle (they are the same) by giving our navy its highest efficiency as an instrument of defense.

If Mr. Denby has any sincere doubts as to the futility of dividing the fleet, he owes it to himself and to the country to reduce his administrative duties to a minimum while he gives some time to study and reflection. Riding a destroyer is not important.
It will not make him a competent naval secretary any more than riding a broncho will make a secretary of war. There is no duty before him so important as to reunite the fleet. If Mr. Denby hasn't grasped that he has not fitted himself and is not now fit for his grave responsibilities.

Criticism of Mr. Daniels, where it was sincere, was not directed at him because he was a Democrat, and Mr. Denby will not be spared blame because he is a Republican. Mr. Denby's duty is the naval defense of the nation, and so long as he permits the fleet to be divided as it now is he falls short of that duty.

We know the influences which support the division of the fleet. They come from admirals and flag officers who get independent commands and higher rank because the navy is broken up into separate parts. They are the politicians on both coasts who think to please their constituencies by bringing ships to the coast, where they are a financial and social asset and a naval deficit. If such influences are to prevail let us have the ships distributed pro-rata among all the ports. The lake ports might demand all the destroyers, since they can come through the canal. Then we can increase independent commands; admirals and the politicians will be taken care of, and the United States may brag of being the first great power to destroy its own armament.

Mr. Denby's duty is clear and urgent. If he is not aware of this, he should be reminded of it by the commander in chief.

STEEL CATCHES UP WITH THE TIMES.

The United States Steel corporation, according to a reliable report from Gary, Ind., has determined to establish the eight hour day in its mills throughout the country. That marks a victory for American standards and Americanization in general which can hardly be overestimated. Despite the hardship of a 20 per cent reduction in pay which accompanies the reduction in hours, it is a victory for the most important principle established in a century's steady improvement of the conditions of labor.

The twelve hour day and the seven day week in the steel mills have been a handicap to the best interests of the steel towns and the country as well as of the individual worker. Opportunities for rest, recreation, education, and Americanization have been restricted to a prohibitive extent. Alien workers have remained aliens instead of becoming Americans. The system has been a dangerous irritant to organized labor and a deterrent to progress. The corporation is to be congratulated upon finally seeing and preparing to remove all these disadvantages. It will profit.

The change will put the steel worker on the same basis as the workers in almost all other lines of industry. They will have opportunity to conserve their health and strength, to extend their energies and ambitions, to educate themselves and their families, and to become American citizens in the best sense of the word.

Not the least important immediate advantage of the change will be the provision of jobs for many thousands of workers now idle. In the Gary mills alone three shifts will call for about 10,000 additional employees when full production is restored. Many thousands now idle in steel towns throughout the country will return to work. They accept a 20 per cent cut in pay, but even so they will be earning a living, and through the exercise of their purchasing power will be contributing to the restoration of general prosperity, which in turn may eventually restore the old wage scale.

At the same time a reduction in the price of steel products should serve to stimulate many lines of manufacturing. Altogether, the decision promises well for employer, worker, and consumer alike.

A GOOD BEGINNING.

[Detroit Free Press.] Will H.
Hays did a very logical thing the other day when he went to the cabinet meeting and chided his fellow members for holding all their mail until late afternoon. He pointed out the disadvantages that are incurred when an unnecessary peak load is dumped on the Washington office every working day by the government, and he secured a promise from all of the cabinet heads and the president to get some of their mail off in the morning.

With that done, the government can come before the country with clean hands and ask business to do likewise. Moreover, by beginning reform at home, Mr. Hays did one of those little stunts which shows that he knows how to get his ideas into the channels of publicity. A formal appeal to the country to go to the postoffice early and offender would have been nothing but a formal appeal in a wilderness of other formal appeals. With all the power of the government behind him he could not shout loud enough to make the country hear his request. But by gently rapping the president and the cabinet over the knuckles, Mr. Hays made a story which traveled to the ends of the country and interested everybody. It was a good bit of work and makes a good beginning in an effort to improve the postal service.

WHEN APRIL COMES.

When April comes, and on the air
Is wafted forth an incense rare
Which tells of gardens lately blown,
Of orchard trees with beauty strown,
The pink of apple, peach and pear—

Then earth becomes a place so fair
That men forget their weight of care;
For who could nurse a heart of stone
When April comes!

Then happiness is everywhere,
Our very breathing fills with despair.
Although we know some glad hopes sown
Shall still be hope, with summer flown,
Yet smiles and posies shall we wear,
When April comes.

"And in that curly framed parenthesis
We read an admonition, little ones,
We must not dance to this."

Without that terse, explanatory phrase—
That brief, illuminating piece of news—
We might have welcomed it with glad huzzas:
"The Pontius Pilate Blues."

THE SHINING LIGHT OF GENIUS.
Abolition, in the specific sense of washing the person, or some part of it, usually is engaged in the plural, abluitions. For what reason is not clear to my whimsical mind. Biographies of the great and near-great I have read, in which invariably occurred this almost formullated sentence: "Arising always at an early hour, he performed his matutinal abluitions with great care, and, retiring to his study, labored assiduously until the household was summoned to breakfast." Am I to understand by this plurality that the great man bathed twice before breakfast, or did his biographer regard it as a distinct act of cleansing if, in washing upon decision confirmed by contemplation, laved his neck?

Iris, thou art a stranger yet to me,
Yet seem I well to know thee by thy works.
Ah, what a privilege 'twould be for me
To shelter thee from life's eternal wrath.
Within my garden I delight to walk Along my lovely iris-bordered path.
Ah, what a privilege 'twould be for me
To shelter thee from life's eternal wrath.
Ah, flee thou not in fear, fair flower,
Delight ne'er from me to hide thy wondrous face.
To look, admire, and worship from afar
Is this poor sordid flower's lowly place.

THE SIXTH YEAR MOLAR.

THE sixth year molar is the first permanent tooth to break through the gums. Coming as it does toward the back of the mouth at a time when the other teeth are all of the temporary variety, it generally is regarded as one of the mildest teeth. The people who are on the lookout for the first permanent tooth have their thoughts focused on the front of the mouth. It is queer that the first permanent tooth should be a jaw tooth when all other beginnings of teething are in the front of the mouth.

The consequence of all this is that the sixth year molar is neglected, as is a rule with temporary teeth, instead of being cared for as many permanent teeth are cared for.

The sixth year molar begins to form about five months before birth. At birth the tooth of the crown is calcified. At one year the entire grinding surface is calcified. In this first year most of the severe illnesses of childhood occur. Is it any wonder that a large proportion of the first year molars are found to have faulty grinding surfaces? At 5 years of age the entire crown is finished and at 6 the tooth erupts.

In a study made by Dr. H. B. Butler of the Public Health service of the first year molars of more than 6,000 children it was found that in one-seventh of the children 6 years old this tooth already had begun to decay. The largest percentage of decaying sixth year molars was found in boys 10 years old and in girls 9 years old. In 11 years 2 per cent of the sixth year molars had been extracted. More than one-half of the children 11 years old had one or more missing or decayed molars. The rate of decay was less in new teeth than in old.
It seemed that if the child could get beyond 12 without a cavity in his molar he was able to keep it cleaner.

Of 1,000 cavities in this molar almost 900 were on the grinding surface. Over 100 were located between this molar and the tooth in front of it. There were practically no cavities on any other surface.

A part of the early decay of the sixth year molars is due to faulty development of the crown. Perhaps the illnesses of the first year of life are partly responsible for this. Perhaps faulty food is a factor. The Butler findings in order to seem that the trouble treatment should begin with the pregnant mother. The mother should eat a properly balanced diet for the sake of her unborn child.
Later the baby should be shielded against severe illness. When old enough to take a mixed diet harder foods should be given than is the custom.

The decay in the temporary teeth im-perils the sixth year molar. Therefore, care of the temporary teeth should be given from the beginning. They can be

WIDENING OGDEN AVENUE.
Chicago, April 2.—(Friend of the People.)—When will the city widen Ogdan avenue to Lincoln park? I have heard that some property owners will not give up their property.

THE CASE is now pending in court for widening of Ogdan avenue, and as soon as we have judgment of condemnation the assessment will be certified for collection. When the assessment is collected we will pay the awards allowed by the court for property to be taken or damaged. The city will not take possession of any of the property ordered condemned until after the awards are paid.

acre lots have given me the hay on their property. The neighbors drive wagons over the ground to stop me from getting the hay. 1. Do I have to fence in these lots? 2. Would one strand of wire do it? 3. Do I need signs on these lots to keep people off? F. H.

1. No.
2. Yes.
3. It would be advisable to put up the fence or signs, or both, but you can sue trespassers without them.

part time roads.

FOREIGN TRADE COMPANY HELD BUSINESS CURE

Redfield and Sisson Paint It World's Hope.

BY O. A. MATHER.

American business and industry must have expanding world commerce if it is to prosper. Foreign markets, not immigrants nor money, is our chief need. In fostering foreign commerce, the American people must extend credit, particularly to Europe, now struggling in the throes of reconstruction after war. Just as Europe in former years extended credit to America in its struggling early years of development.

These arguments, in brief, were presented last night by William C. Redfield, former secretary of commerce, and Francis H. Sisson, vice president of the Guaranty Trust company of New York, at a joint meeting of the Illinois Manufacturers' association, the Chicago Association of Credit Men, and the Chicago Association of Commerce.

The purpose of the meeting was to stimulate further interest in the Foreign Trade Financing corporation, organized under the Edge law by the banking interests of the country with $10,000,000 capital and the power ultimately to extend $1,000,000,000 in credit for financing our foreign trade.

Practical Facts Sought.

"Let us as practical men get at practical facts," Mr. Redfield said. "I look out of my New York office window on idle ships at anchor and warehouses overfilled with American products that cannot be shipped for lack of paying power abroad. This condition backs up into factories, farms and mines all over the land where the inability to pay for goods shipped abroad causes unemployment and distress. The reaction is felt on every wheat farm and throughout our cotton plantations."

"The other side of the picture is equally striking. Many men in many lands want food, tools and materials. They are eager to buy not less than they are to sell, but there is no present means of bringing buyer and seller together. One is planned and the purpose of this meeting is to promote its construction."

Not Enough Real Money to Pay.

"The world owes us $15,000,000,000, perhaps more. Real money does not exist in sufficient quantity to pay. Goods there are not sufficient in the world to pay, and we would not want them dumped upon us if there were. Services for which we used to call upon others are now rendering largely to ourselves and seek to do so more. Yet we must be paid in some one of these three ways, possibly in all, and at some time."

"Time is as necessary a solvent of the difficulty as the means of payment—in which to gather material for

BEAUTIES OF MOTOR ROW WILL FROLIC IN 'FOLLIES' SHOW

One hundred reasons for an early increase in sales along Chicago's automobile row may be seen rehearsing most any spring evening in the Illinois Automobile club, 2819 South Michigan avenue. They will make up the colorful but scantily dressed chorus and all other trimmings of the annual Auto Follies to be held under the club's direction at the Aryan Grotto theater, Wabash avenue and Eighth street, May 2 to 7, inclusive.

The hundred beauties have been chosen from automobile and accessory salesrooms and offices exclusively.

payment, in which to produce the means of payment, in which to sell the products and collect the proceeds. We must continue to sell whether we choose or not. We cannot consume all we produce. The ultimate power of payment is still in the world. The need, however, exists to set that power functioning."

corporation alone offers a solution for present difficulties and future necessities. It is adequate alike in financial power and in commercial outreach. It will do for us what we had not sufficient capital for our needs."

Sisson Adds His Plea.

Mr. Sisson also emphasized America's growing needs of world commerce. "We need Europe's aid today quite as much as, if not more than, in the past," he said. "It is a different kind of assistance, however, that we require now. Heretofore we have sought and obtained Europe's money and men. Today we do not need either, at least in the quantities we received before the world war."

"We need European markets to preserve our national prosperity. The reactions here of economic disturbances in Europe are beginning to manifest themselves plainly. The most patent and perturbing evidence of these reactions is the present unemployment in the United States. It is large enough to exert a very depressing effect on domestic conditions, for men out of work mean lesser production and curtail purchasing power."

Near Limit of Expansion.

"The enormous surplus of exports in the last six years could never have been made had exports not been financed on the faith that they would ultimately be paid for. In 1920, seventy-three cents out of every dollar of exports represented credit. But our existing facilities for financing our foreign trade will not permit of indefinite expansion."

"Only through the facilities which such an organization as the foreign trade financing corporation would have can we hope to provide adequate credit for financing our export trade on the scale that is now imperative."

RAIL BOARD TO ACT QUICKLY ON WAGE CUT PLEAS

26 Roads Now Seeking to Make Reductions.

Members of the railroad labor board indicated yesterday that wage reduction requests filed by twenty-six railroads within the last month probably will be given precedence over all other matters, particularly the question of rules, which has dragged along for the last ten months. A decision is expected this week in the New York Central's request for a wage cut of 25 per cent for common labor.

Roads Seeking Wage Cuts.

Besides the New York Central, the roads which have wage reduction appeals pending are:

Calls Some Rules Desirable.

Yesterday's hearing was occupied in completing the examination of W. G. Beeler president of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, and H. E. Byram, head of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul.

Do Not Halt Strikes.

Frank Walsh, union counsel, asked President Byram if rules were not a means of avoiding strikes.

"No," replied the witness. "We got along on the Burlington for many years without rules. The parties who apply these rules should be the ones to make them. There is a great difference between what you mean and what you say. The great difficulty is in the application. It is much easier for the

BOYS FLEE HOME OF WOE TO EARN LIVING; ONE, 9, SHOT AS THIEF

It was just one week ago that a 9-year-old Alfred Turrisi and his brother, Sam, left the three squallid rooms in the old frame building at 2808 Princeton avenue. Their father, still suffering from tuberculosis after fifteen months in the hospital, was unable to earn anything, and the money their mother brought in by sewing was scant. Besides, there were two smaller Turrisis to care for. So the two boys ran away to make their own fortune.

ALFRED TURRISI.

Now Alfred is in the Peoples' hospital with a bullet wound in his leg, and Sam, two years his senior, is in jail. Early yesterday George Gusich, 2512 Wentworth avenue, heard sounds of breaking glass below in his butcher shop and shot at the fleeing forms of the burglars.

"I couldn't see that they were mere boys," he mourned later, as he gazed at the writhing body of Alfred. In whose pockets were stuffed a string of sausages.

HARDING MAY CALL PARLEY

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., April 5.—[Special.]—Representatives of the railway executives will consult on the railroad problem with President Harding when he has ended his conferences with the employees' representatives. If, after receiving the views of the leaders of the managerial and employee groups, it appears that an amicable solution of their differences may be attained by bringing them together in a joint conference, such a meeting may be called by the president.

W. S. Carter, president Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, saw the president today. Warren S. Starn, head of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, is expected tomorrow.

Discussed by Cabinet.
Transportation problems were further considered by the cabinet today in a discussion of domestic business conditions. The initial step toward bettering the conditions confronted by the railroads, administration officials believe, must come from the United States railroad labor board.

Prompt action on the application of the carriers for abrogation of the national agreement would do more than any other one thing at present to clarify the situation.

Abrogation of the national agreement would permit the railroads to effect economies which must precede any general reduction in freight and passenger rates.

Appeal for Lower Grain Rates.

The letter sent yesterday by Director Hardie of the bureau of traffic of the commission, to representatives of the railroads proposing reductions in grain rates, was regarded as of particular significance.

It was pointed out in that letter that the revenues of the railroads are not such that will stand any considerable reductions in rates at this time. The letter expressed the views of Chairman Clark, who holds the belief that until operating expenses have come down there can be no reduction in rates.

Virginia Labor Federation Hits Hearst; Backs Gompers

Lynchburg, Va., April 5.—Attacks made by William H. Hearst, through his newspapers, on Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, were condemned in resolution adopted today by the Virginia Federation of Labor. Railroad workers, led by Howard Clavin of Richmond, opposed the resolutions. He said there were many opposed to the retention of Gompers as head of the American Federation of Labor.

EAT YOUR WAY BACK TO HEALTH OH, YES, YOU CAN

Eat Cereal Meal for Constipation and Throw Away
Your Pills.

Wholesome, Palatable New Cereal Food Guaranteed to Satisfy.

Get Away from Harmful Drugs That Only Work by Irritation.

Cereal Meal Works with Nature and Brings on Normal Movements.

The use of drugs—pills, laxatives, cathartics—for constipation simply means an increased use of them. It is the habit of nature to develop strong resistance for any unnatural thing that attacks her. The taking of drugs for constipation FORCES nature by irritation. Any unnatural thing cannot be expected to bring a natural result.

Cereal Meal, the new Ideal Health Food, brings regular, easy, thorough movements each day as regularly as the clock, in a NATURAL manner. It is guaranteed to do so. By allowing Cereal Meal to replace the cereal you may be accustomed to eating, you not only add a delicious, nutritious food to your daily diet, but you rid yourself of the "physic habit," assure yourself perfect bowel movements and safeguard yourself against the dangers of a rundown system.

All you have to do is to order one package of Cereal Meal, eat it regularly as a cereal food and throw away your pill box and bottle of laxative.

"Keithsburg, Ill.
"March 19, 1921.
"Find inclosed check for which please send me six boxes of Cereal Meal. I am using it and think it fine. Kindly send at once so that I will not be without it."
"MRS. R. E. B."

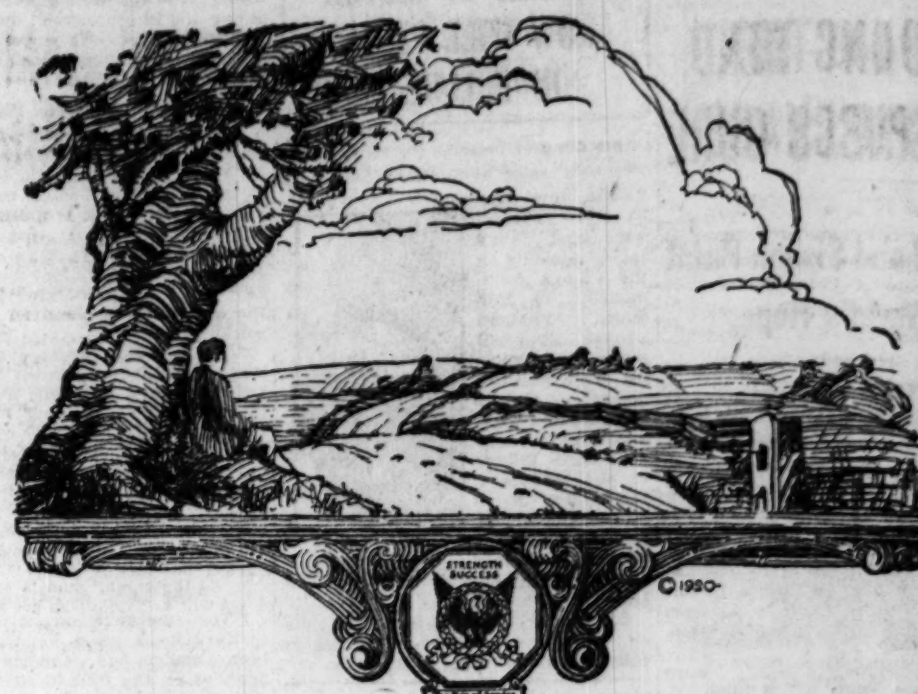

Certain missing elements in the food you are now eating cause constipation. All the phytic and laxatives in the world cannot add these elements to your food, therefore only work harm—and a constantly increasing physical demand for them. Cereal Meal simply supplies these "missing elements" and nature does the rest.

When constipation is properly relieved by the eating of Cereal Meal, and the use of pills and laxatives stopped, the change for the better in the general health is marked and most wonderful.

Indigestion, fermentation, dull eyes, unaccountable fatigue, sallow complexion, headaches, much nervousness—chronic appendicitis—usually are but secondary to constipation. Relieve constipation in a natural manner by eating Cereal Meal and, in the vast majority of cases, these conditions will quickly disappear.

Purchase one package of Cereal Meal TODAY. If it fails to bring on natural bowel movements each day as nature intended for good health; if it fails to please you as a food and in every other particular, the amount paid for one package will be refunded without argument.

If you reside in Chicago, purchase a package TODAY by calling or telephoning Sargent's Drug Store, 23 N. Wabash Ave., or Jacobson Drug Co., 2156 Lawrence Ave., cor. Kedzie Ave. If you reside out of Chicago and your dealer has no Cereal Meal, write direct to the manufacturer, The American Health Food Corp., 148 N. Tremont St., Denver, Colo., and receive interesting booklet on constipation, full particulars and prices.

RAILWAYS FIGHT OVER JUNCTION LINE PURCHASE

What promises to be a bitter fight between the interstate commerce commission and the New York Central railroad's purchase of Chicago's two principal inner freight transfer systems—the Chicago Junction Railway and the Chicago River and Indiana railroad—was launched yesterday by eight railroads at the initial hearing before W. H. Colston at the Great Northern building.

Attorney Luther Walters, representing the Pennsylvania system, seven other railroads and shippers, engaged in a number of spirited verbal tilts with Attorney Robert J. Cary, chief counsel for the New York Central system.

The New York Central has asked permission to purchase the capital stock of the Chicago River and Indiana railroad, which owns fifteen miles of tracks in the city and tracks and rights of twenty-eight miles over other roads, for $750,000. It also seeks to lease the Chicago Junction railway for approximately $2,000,000 a year with an option to purchase the road outright later for $32,000,000.

The Chicago Junction railway operates a double track inner belt line twenty-three miles long with sidings and spurs tapping the stockyards, the manufacturing district, and

HARDING RALLIES DAWES' DAMNS TO AID MAIMED

Washington, D. C., April 5.—[Special.]—The special commission headed by Charles G. Dawes of Chicago to draft comprehensive plans for soldier relief was asked by President Harding today to make "diligent inquiry" of government department chiefs in Washington with a view to discovering where these departments have lapsed in providing for disabled service men.

The president made his request in a written statement handed to Mr. Dawes at the White House today, and was read later to the first meeting of the commission.

"A deplorable situation exists," Mr. Dawes told the commission later, "and the president and congress are anxious to remedy it. The condition exists because of lack of coordination among the agencies authorized by law to care for the soldiers."

"Something must be accomplished. We will find the remedy and stay in continuous session until we do."

"In contradiction to the congressional war investigating committees, let's have this committee get together, get somewhere, and get through."

A motion to that effect was made and unanimously adopted.

"I have asked you to meet," the president's letter to the commission said, "to make an investigation of the administration of the law in caring for the crippled and impaired soldiers of the late world war."

Regulations made now, he estimated, would have effects reaching over fifty years.

After a two hour session Mr. Dawes announced the evils had been found and that phase of the inquiry was closed.

Mr. Dawes had talked with Dr. Haven Emerson of the war risk bureau, who had said between 1925 and 1927 the "peak of the load of ex-service men" would require hospital treatments and then 31,000 beds would be ready.

"Under the present system," asked Mr. Dawes, "is it some one who doesn't give a damn who says how many beds are available?"

"There is a very considerable delay in obtaining that information," Dr. Emerson replied.

$400,000 PAID FOR FEE UNDER COHAN'S GRAND

BY AL CHASE.

A check for $400,000 was given to John Borden yesterday by Abraham J. Franks in payment for the ground under the Cohan Grand Opera house at 119-121 North Clark street. The property is under a long term ground lease at an annual rental of $24,000 yielding the buyer 6 per cent net on his investment. Mr. Franks made a loan on the property with the Massachusetts Mutual Insurance company for $200,000, 6 per cent, five years.

The lot is irregular, with a frontage of 40 feet and a depth of 80 feet, after which it broadens out to a width of 100 feet, extending back 100 feet, with the exception of a small 20x20 plot at the southeast corner. The sale was at the rate of a trifle over $11 a square foot. David S. Simon and B. W. Elstendath were brokers.

Lease Calls for Payment in Gold.
The land was leased by the late John A. Hamlin from the late William B. Hamlin, father of the present grantor, for ninety-nine years from May 1, 1893, at an annual rental of $24,000. An unusual feature of the lease is the stipulation that the rent shall be paid in so many grains of fine gold. It figures out a bit over $24,000 a year, but that exact amount has been accepted and agreed on as the annual return.

Mr. Hamlin had, previous to entering into this lease, built the Grand Opera house. The theater, under his and his sons' management, had a long and noteworthy career. For many years Mrs. Fiske, Richard Mansfield, and other independent stars always played their Chicago engagements there.

Famous as Producing House.
For a time it achieved national fame as a summer producing house. "The Wizard of Oz" and "Babes in Toyland" being the conspicuous successes. On Aug. 1, 1912, George M. Cohan and Sam Harris leased it for ten years at an annual rental of $45,000 and one-third of the net profits. Early last year Cohan & Harris entered into a new lease for twenty-two years and two months from June 1, 1920, at an annual rental of $50,000. It will be seen that the present lease on the Hamlin is a profit of $25,000 a year.

In addition to the rental Cohan & Harris have agreed to construct a new theater, to cost not less than $250,000. Architect A. N. Rebori is drawing plans for one of the most elaborate playhouses in the country. Work is expected to start some time next year.

They say—"the best filing department in the U. S."

Practically every one is familiar with the H. K. Mulford Company, manufacturing chemists. They do a tremendous business, both domestic and foreign.

Library Bureau was asked to assist in the reorganization of their filing department. An intensive study was made of their problem. The report of this investigation was read in a special meeting of 15 department heads—discussed from every angle—and adopted!

L. B. not only worked out the most practical filing method, but actually installed the system, started it going, showed executives how to use it to the best advantage, and instructed the file clerks how to keep it running smoothly.

Today, the executives and employees of the H. K. Mulford Company say they have "the best filing department in the United States!"

These days, a good filing system is more necessary than ever before. If you are having trouble, call in the L. B. representative. He knows his business.

MAKERS OF CLAY PRODUCTS WANT HIGHER TARIFF

Importers Urge Lower Duties.

BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.
Washington, D. C., April 5.—(Special.)—Controversy between domestic producers and importing interests have developed in connection with many of the important commodities included in the tariff law applying to earth, earthenware, and glassware.

Among the commodities affected are clay products, china, clay, pottery, glass, earthenware, earthenware, and glassware.

Manufacturers of earthenware and glassware declare that importations from Japan are rapidly increasing, and that additional duties are necessary to protect the domestic manufacturers.

Clay Producers Lose 60 Per Cent. There is a conflict between the producers and importers in the case of china clay or kaolin. This clay is used chiefly for giving a finish to paper and also to some extent in the manufacture of pottery.

The producers are asking increased duties, asserting that the industry will be destroyed because of the increase in duty on the English product.

The importers of china clay object to any increase in duty on the English product. They contend that the domestic clay is inferior. The producers answer by declaring that if the business were made profitable, additional capital will be used to refine the clay.

Pumice Mines Closed. Pumice stone has also caused the producers and importers to be arrayed against each other. Imported pumice stone comes from Italy. At present the mines in the United States are practically all closed down. Business has stopped because of inability to compete with the Italian stone under the present tariff and local high freight rates.

The importers of pumice stone contend that the present duties should not be increased because the domestic product is not satisfactory.

Lime manufacturers of the Pacific coast have asked for an increased duty as protection against imports from Canada. The clay products industry in the northwest has asked for increased duties on such commodities as common brick, hollow building tile, face brick, fire brick, flue lining, etc.

It is contended that British Columbia products are making inroads on their business. Protection against Canadian competition also is sought by manufacturers of gypsum products, such as wall plaster, finishing plaster, and plaster board.

The gypsum importers object to any increased duty. Producers of fluorspar have asked a considerable increase in duties as a protection against imports from England. Fluorspar is essential in the manufacture of open hearth steel.

Mica, Carbon, Marble.

An increased duty on mica is asked by producers in nine states. Imports of mica come chiefly from India.

Manufacturers of carbon desire greatly increased protection. Domestic marble producers desire increased protection against imported Italian marble. Manufacture of chemical and laboratory glassware is certain to receive protection. At present the industry is menaced not only by German competition, but by Japanese competition.

Glass of Many Kinds.

Manufacture of optical glass is another war industry which similarly desires protection. Plate glass manufacturers are asking increased duties as a protection against European competition. Belgium being the principal competitor. The window glass manufacturers also have asked protection against Belgium. Manufacturers of pressed and stained glassware ask protection against imports from central Europe. German competition is feared chiefly by manufacturers of stained and painted glass windows. In the case of rolled glass there is competition from England, Belgium, France, Germany, Austria, and Japan.

MOVIE MAKERS PLEDGE REFORM OF THEIR TRADE

Ask N. Y. Governor for Year's Probation.

Albany, N. Y., April 5.—A proposal that instead of passage of a censorship bill motion picture producers and exhibitors enter a "hard and fast agreement" with Gov. Miller to "clean up the industry and drive the objectionable pictures out of business" was made today by William A. Brady, who said he represented 90 per cent of the producers.

John J. McAneny added that the exhibitors also would be a party to the agreement.

The proposition was made at a committee hearing on the bill.

Want Year's Probation. The governor and this senate will be here next year," Mr. Brady declared, "and we will take the word of those who clamor for censorship as to whether or not we have cleaned house. If we do not, then I shall be one of the first to urge passage of a censorship bill.

"I deny that low pictures are being exhibited in the volume that has been stated here. I deny that the industry is in the hands of Jews. Ninety per cent of those who make up the motion picture business are Christians.

"If this bill should become law, 'Joan of Arc' cannot be portrayed in this state, nor could the life of Christ. Shakespeare would be cut out of the movies. Censorship would ruin the picture business."

Many Oppose Censorship. D. W. Griffith, producer; Rex Beach, president, Authors' league; Miss Mary Graves Peck of Geneva, writer; Hugh Frayne, speaking for Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and Sydney S. Cohen, president of the Motion Picture Owners of America, all spoke against censorship.

Mrs. Clarence Waterman, Brooklyn, was the leader of the bill's proponents. She declared that 5,000 feet of crime could not be condoned by "fifty feet of morality at the end," and said she had been informed by an exhibitor that ballots cast by his patrons showed that 60 per cent favored risqué pictures.

ASK DAYLIGHT SAYING. Kenosha, Wis., April 5.—Four thousand Kenosha people have signed petitions asking the city council to pass a resolution providing for daylight saving. The petition had the support of factory workers.

One of the Most Remarkable Sales of Men's Athletic Union Suits This Store Has Announced in Years

Through an unusual trade arrangement, which affected prices in our favor from the very materials through the last process in the manufacture of this large special assortment of men's knee-length athletic union suits, one of the most remarkable prices quoted in years on such merchandise becomes effective now.

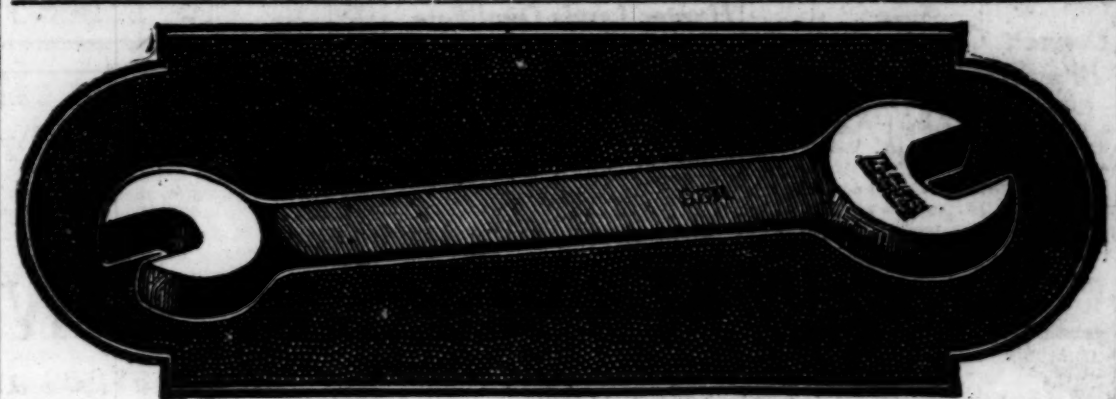

These union suits are all of superior quality—which fact itself speaks volumes for the extraordinary values. And they come in the most popular of the athletic underwear materials, in madras and nainsooks of excellent qualities, in cross-bar and many other effects so much desired.

In this great assortment of men's athletic union suits are two styles, pictured above—the two-button drop-seat and the closed crotch style—in sizes from 34 to 46-inch chest measurement—and so unusual is the price that supplying now one's requirements for the entire summer will be profitable.

THE GUMPS—A COMPLETE DISGUISE

MANAGERS IN MOVE TO PREVENT BOXERS COPPING 'MONIKERS'

TRIBUNE DECISIONS

Decisions of Tribune boxing representatives are:

At New York—Lou Bogash knocked out Jimmy O'Garra (13); Johnny Williams knocked out Joe Hall (10); Charlie Beecher beat Freddy Zacks (10).

At Philadelphia—Low Baker beat Ben Taylor (8); Sol O'Donnell beat Mike Kerns (8).

By RAY PEARSON.

There is one thing that the boxing organizations recently formed in Chicago hope to accomplish that will please everybody who has an interest in the sport.

The Illinois Association of Boxing Managers announces that steps will be taken to prevent more than one boxer using a name, and the boxers' association also intends to insert a rule in its laws to put an end to this practice.

When a boxer gains fame in the ring, it isn't long before some other scrapper of lesser caliber is traveling around the country with a moniker similar to the classy boxer.

Adopt Names of Stars.

For instance, we might take the case of Joe Wellington, the Chicago lightweight, as an example. Wellington hasn't been boxing for several weeks, yet reports a few days ago were sent out from Philadelphia saying that Joe Wellington had been beaten in a Quaker City ring.

Of course, it wasn't the Chicago Joe Wellington, but a Philadelphia fellow who calls himself "Young Joe" Wellington.

Mean to Stamp Out Evil.

Kid Howard, speaking for the Managers' association, has this to say of plans in this respect:

"We are going to make an effort to stamp out this practice. I think it can be done before long. We are going to make a rule preventing a boxer from using a name that belongs to another ring man. Even if a newcomer boasts a real name the same as some other boxer, we are going to insist that he adopt a fighting name that won't be like any other."

Bill Brennan Appointed as National League Ump

New York, April 5.—Umpire Bill Brennan, who ruled that the game at Jackson, Tenn., yesterday be forfeited by the Washington Americans to the New York Giants, has been appointed by President Heydler on his staff of National league umpires for the coming season. Brennan was a National league umpire six years ago and last year officiated for the Southern association.

Three Homers Help U. High Nine to Beat Alumni, 16-1

University High's baseball team won its first game of the season yesterday, defeating an alumni nine, 16 to 1, at U. High field. Binger hurled great ball for U. High, fanning twelve and allowing only two hits. Whitacre, Baker, and Feutchwanger each hit homers for the school nine.

INTERSTATE LEAGUE.

The interstate league has registered twenty-five teams. Fifteen practice games were scheduled for Sunday, as follows:

Mobile A. C. and Diamond A. C. at Elberta; Commercial W. S. Sportsmen and Mobile A. C. at Sears Roebuck field; South Georgia Boosters and Flak Coats at One Hun; and Nueces and Indians; Jack Rabbits and Chero Live Wines at Fort-seventh and Nineteenth; Chicago Browns and Monticello at Roman and Division; Ramblers and Greenwood Tigers at Wisconsin park; Will A. C. and Marvels at Alameda park; Providence and Marjays at Kettie and Elston; Westerns and Peoria Giants at Hamilton; Bases and Kempa Greys at Douglas; Hamilton Dodgers and Indians at Elston; Kettie and Kettie; Aris and Congress A. C. at South and Van Buren; Chicago Red Sox and All Americans at Thirty-third and Western; Jesus Manville and Ravens A. C. at Western park; Daley Tigers and Vendleys at Fifty-sixth and Sixteenth.

INTERCITY LEAGUE.

The intercity league has listed the following games for Sunday:

Gray at Elkhart; Borden at Dixon; Hamilton Stars at Mendota; Deerfield at Mendota; Mendota at Morton; Corvallis and Skel Roaches at Fourteenth and Main; Boys at Hammond; State at Elkhart; and Van Buren; Chicago Red Sox and All Americans at Thirty-third and Western; Jesus Manville and Ravens A. C. at Western park; Daley Tigers and Vendleys at Fifty-sixth and Sixteenth.

COACH AT YALE.

Yale's Coach, April 5.—Addison of the Yale football team, captain of the 1919 team, was announced today. He will be in charge of all class crews.

In the Wake of the News

OBSCURE TERM.

I've earned my bread at many trades, I've looked on many lands; Theodolites and sails and spades Are tools that fit my hands. Of things peculiar and bizarre That ever I did see, There's none so comical by far As the phrase "Land of the Free." Etc., etc. for thirty lines or so, which I will spare you.—H. M. S.

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION.

Grandmother says, "When I was younger (Girls of twenty-one and under) I dressed much more appropriately than today. They were no transparent dresses, French hooded boots or tatted trousers. And they never preface their remarks by 'Say.'"

When I look at her dear picture, And see all those fancy dresses, Pantaloones, bustle and other things she wore, I inquire in tones emphatic, And with feeling that's dramatic, "Say, did you ever see such funny things before?" Babette.

Racing in Illinois.

We always have advocated a law which would permit racing with some form of betting, on Illinois tracks for a limited period each season. Such a bill is now before the legislature, but a person who is usually informed on Springfield matters tells us it has practically no chance of passage.

Our informant says there are two ways of securing a racing law. One is by the creation of an overwhelming public sentiment which the legislators dare not deny. This has not been done. The other method is not pleasant reading and we dismise it.

We fear Chicago will go Derbyless until business men and lovers of horses join hands in a concerted movement to secure a kindly law.

Ernie Didn't Buy.

"Old Man Jazz," as his Evanston neighbors nicknamed him when he took up the modern dancing steps with a professional instructor, found his renewed social activities required a new dinner coat. He therefore offered the discarded clothing to an old clobber man, but to the offer of $5 declared he would use it to fire the furnace rather than accept such a price.

Then "Old Man Jazz" recalled Ernie, a waiter whom he knew at the Margold, and he thought Ernie might be interested. A telephone call brought the information "Ernie was 'out,' but the telephone number where he could be reached.

The number secured, the proffer of a second-hand dinner coat was duly made, followed by indignant sputtering at the other end. Ernie Young, the broker who had a show on at the Margold at the time and whose phone number had been furnished, shouted, "I'm a ticket broker, not a pawn broker."

One week from today, you can go out and inspect for yourself the penitent chasers.

College Department.

Dear Wake: Loyal Illinois rooters spend dad's money to follow their teams and can show any conference crowd what real loyalty means, winning or losing. I've seen the loyal rooters wait hours for a train bearing a defeated team to sing "Loyalty."

Lives there a man with ears so deaf, Who hasn't heard the feeble cleft Of "Illinois Loyalty?"

Anyway, Illinois never left the conference and later had to come back to it.—Gertrude, Illini.

Dear Wake: Where do the Illini acquire their sanctimonious airs about never framing an alibi. As I remember it, the touchdown by which Ohio State, the better team, defeated Illinois at Urbana last fall, was questioned by coach, students and alumni, and lengthy articles to prove the contention were published in many Illinois papers.

To the Wake, it appears as if this College Department free-for-all was Illinois against the field.

This Wake is Conducted by Harvey T. Woodruff. Help! Help!

When I Was a Kid I Thought—

The swinging and swaying of the trees was what made the wind blow.—Walt.

Street Arab.

Dear Wake: I saw one of those little street arabs at Madison and Halsted street thirty years ago, who were recently referred to. We did give what we called a "soldier's shine" with the heels while for 5 cents, but for 10 cents we gave just as good a one as you can get now. My stand was on the north-west corner.

GARDINI-DEMETRAL MATCH TAKES PLACE APRIL 12, AS AGREED

Despite efforts of the foes of the Gardini-Demetral wrestling match, the bout will be staged at Ashland auditorium on April 12. In addition it is the plan of Promoter George Dussias to put on some preliminaries that on another mat would prove headliners. These matches will be made public in due time.

From all accounts the Gardini-Demetral match should be a humdinger.

Both principals appear to be somewhat hot under the collar over charges that have been flung backward and forward. Among other things, Bill Demetral has charged that Gardini, who defeated the Greek some time ago, has been dodging a return match. This Gardini denies emphatically.

"Demetral is simply trying to belittle me before my countrymen," declared the Italian yesterday. "I won fairly and squarely in our last encounter and have never tried to evade a return match. Demetral has made repeated claims that he was ill when we met last fall. Well, he should have no excuse this time."

As for the date April 12, I had a chance to get another match for April 13, and I did not want to miss it, because it meant more money than any guarantee will get me in this bout with Demetral. But I have agreed to meet Demetral and sacrifice money in order to show my countrymen—and his—that I am his master."

Rocky Kansas rocks another into slumberland. He proved his Buffalo victory over Riehl Mitchell was no fluke by taking the Milwaukee last number a second time. This doubling up process shows he is no flash in the pan. We're afraid, however, that Benjie Leonard will touch off the powder when they meet.

Speaking of Judge Landis. What a fertile field he would find in the wrestling game hereabouts. It is probably just as well for some persons that he hasn't jurisdiction over this sport.

Under the present law the boxing commissioners are paid an annual salary of $5,000, while the deputy commissioners receive $25 a day for every day they are engaged.

Under the proposed law provision is made for four deputies at an annual salary of $4,000 each.

The present licensing committee of the commission would remain.

By doing the alleged faking, White not only violated the state boxing law, but other Wisconsin criminal laws," the answer said. The commission declared it not only had a right to drop the boxer, but that it was its duty to do so. White "did not act in good faith, but acted throughout the entire contest in an unsportsmanlike and illegal manner," the answer said.

ENGLWOOD BEATS LINDBLOM.

Englewood high school A. O. T. C. nine beat Lindholm, 14 to 6, in a practice game at Hamilton park yesterday.

STRAIGHT FROM THE SHOULDER

ASKETBALL certainly has had a run for its money during the season just closed. The amateurs in this pastime held sportsmen's attention as never before. When amateurs make a success of a sport, you may be sure you will see commercialism on the horizon. The winter there was much talk of professional basketball teams. Then it died out, but all may rest assured by the time winter breaks on us again, there will be professional teams. The game won't "go" for a spell, but it will be a question of time when it will, then there will be demands for big salaries by the players and if the managers refuse to "pony up," there will be holdouts. Then it will be only a question of another short spell when the sport will need a Judge Landis.

Frank Baker, ex-home run king, appears to have fooled around just one season too many. He P. T. Barnum'd various magazines, but ballroom's ear took up his ticket and now he must write a new one or be barred from O. B. (as the head writers put it). Moral: Don't fool with the buzzsaw.

Speaking of Judge Landis. What a fertile field he would find in the wrestling game hereabouts. It is probably just as well for some persons that he hasn't jurisdiction over this sport.

Under the present law the boxing commissioners are paid an annual salary of $5,000, while the deputy commissioners receive $25 a day for every day they are engaged.

Under the proposed law provision is made for four deputies at an annual salary of $4,000 each.

The present licensing committee of the commission would remain.

By doing the alleged faking, White not only violated the state boxing law, but other Wisconsin criminal laws," the answer said. The commission declared it not only had a right to drop the boxer, but that it was its duty to do so. White "did not act in good faith, but acted throughout the entire contest in an unsportsmanlike and illegal manner," the answer said.

SHALL WE WORRY ALONG WITH 1917 CITY DIRECTORY?

Business Men's Vote on New One Sought.

Is Chicago, with approximately 3,000,000 population, financially able to support a city directory?

The Chicago Association of Commerce has tried to obtain a definite answer to that question for months. The response has been only lukewarm.

The present directory, published in 1917, is out of date. None could be published during the war owing to the inability of the Chicago Directory company to find canvassers. About three months ago the company sent out 15,000 letters asking business men whether they wished a directory. Only 1,300 replied they did. The price of the directory has doubled since 1917. Then it cost $15. Now it would cost $30.

"The replies received would guarantee us only $39,000," said an official of the company yesterday. "It would cost us $250,000 to publish a new directory. We thought it would help solve the unemployment problem, as well as furnish the city with a much needed guide, so we sent representatives to every business man who had subscribed to the old issue. Only one-third of them would buy a new directory at $30."

Now it has been suggested that the Chicago Association of Commerce obtain a representative body of business men and women to underwrite a new directory, make up any deficit, and assure the company at least the net cost, if not a 10 per cent profit. But the association wishes answers to the following questions: Does Chicago need a directory? Do the citizens, especially the business men, desire one?

What Some Leaders Say.

Here are some opinions expressed yesterday:

D. F. KELLY, Mandel Brothers—My credit men and routers tell me they have felt the lack of an up-to-date directory. It seems to me the association could interest enough business concerns to underwrite the publishing of a new one.

ATTORNEY LEVY MAYER—The city needs and should have a new directory. The requirements of all the people make a new directory a necessity almost as much as a new time table when a railroad changes its train time.

MAJ. A. A. SPRAGUE, Sprague, Warner & Co.—Even at $30 a city directory is something no business house could afford to be without.

JOHN S. CAPPER, Capper & Capper—I have not felt the loss of a directory, as I seldom have occasion to consult one, but I suppose our credit men and others have a different viewpoint. Surely a city as large and rich as Chicago could support one.

AUGUST GATZERT, Rosenwald & Well—I was unaware until now that no new directory has been published since 1917. A manufacturer has little use for one. However, I do not see how the retail men get along without one.

PLENTY OF FLATS FOR ALL TENANTS, SURVEY REVEALS

Bostrom Gives Figures to Refute Owners' Claims.

Figures substantiating the charge of Chicago tenants that the high rent situation has no validity are indicated in a survey of apartment buildings and flats in the city which was completed yesterday by Building Commissioner Charles Bostrom.

The figures show that there are 16,594 apartment buildings and flats in the city, which is more than the number of houses in the city. The survey, which was made with the aid of federal statistics for 1919, places the number of apartments in Chicago at 125,000 and the number of tenants at 423,370.

The number of apartment buildings, according to Bostrom, is 16,594. The owners thereof, he reports, number 60,000. The tenants together with their wives and children total 1,242,902 persons. It is estimated that 125,000 residents of the city own their own homes.

The survey shows that 223,414 buildings have been erected in Chicago during the last ten years. Of this number, 11,733 were apartment structures, 27,213 were residences, 2,882 apartments and stores, 1,360 stores and one apartment, 229 hotels, and 150 stores and hotels.

Heated Debate on Topic.

What promises to develop into a free for all row will take place Friday evening in the Senate chamber, Langley street and East Sixth street, when Senator J. E. MacMurray and Frank P. Suller will debate with south side tenants on the Kessler bill for a city rent commission.

Both Senators have expressed themselves as being opposed to the bill and have accepted an invitation from Louis Ward, president of the Hyde Park branch of the Chicago Tenants' Protective League, to discuss it. Practically all tenants in that district are constituents of the senators. Representative Sidney Lyons and several tenants, including Dr. R. W. Starr, will defend the bill.

Name Legislative Committee.

A legislative committee was appointed by officials of the tenants' league yesterday. It consists of J. B. Strauss, president of the Strauss Bascule building company, chairman; Dr. Starr, S. A. Ayling and Frank DeVere, and officers J. E. MacMurray, president; A. J. Jesurun, secretary, and E. F. Hamand, treasurer of the league.

RENT WAR HEROES

Tenants Honor Landlords Who Reduce Rates.

Readers have suggested during the last few days that THE TRIBUNE publish an "honor roll" of landlords who have not demanded increases in rents this year and of those who have made reductions. Scanning over the files of the paper for the last few days, the reporter found the names of four landlords who announced that they have reduced rents instead of increasing them. There may be others—probably are.

At any rate, the "honor roll" begins with the following:

MARTIN FINLAYSON, 1560 West Congress street; reduced rents in his building $5 per month.

J. LOUIS GUYON, 4017 West End avenue; reduced rents of his twenty-two apartment building $5 each a month.

M. PETERSON, 1505 North Rockwell street; reduced rents at 1746 Humboldt boulevard $5 per apartment.

None were discovered who made no changes whatever over last year's prices.

WISNER DEMANDS DRAINAGE BOARD KEEP HIM IN JOB

A letter protesting his release as consulting engineer for the sanitary district and demanding that it carry out its contract with him, was received yesterday by George M. Wisner, who was dropped from the service of the board last week. The letter was turned over to the legal department by Morris Eller, chairman of the employment committee.

"I shall expect the sanitary district to carry out the terms of the contract," Mr. Wisner wrote. "The contract provides for his services as consulting engineer from June 1, 1920, until Dec. 31, 1923, at a salary of $10,000 yearly."

Trustee Willis O. Nance opposed a request of Chief Engineer Albert W. Kintz for a $100,000 appropriation to carry out the work of the drainage board, now in process of construction. The engineer committee refused to accept it.

"It is a reckless expenditure of money and it is time that the engineer board drainage board began to stabilize its work to eliminate the expenses," Nance said.

SCORES WATCH POLICE BATTLE THUGS IN ALLEY

Alcohol cigars valued at $5,000 were recovered early this morning by Sergeants Hanson and Small of the Englewood division following a revolver battle with burglars in which scores of shots were fired. After their ammunition was exhausted the burglars escaped.

The officers commandeered an automobile and pursued the thieves from the third and Halsted into an alleyway. Hanson and Small were in the lead, where they were greeted with a volley. The officers shot back and the battle was on.

Dozens of residents attracted from the homes by the shooting watched the battle. After half an hour the bullets ceased firing and the officers rushed to the truck. But the burglars had fled.

Judge Has Insurance Agent Taken as Con Man

Harry McConnell, an insurance agent, 4645 Woodlawn avenue, was arrested on the complaint of Edward T. Wade, an attorney with offices in the Westminster building. Wade charges McConnell with having obtained $2,000 from him a year ago by means of a confidence game.

According to Wade, who formerly was judge of the Municipal court, McConnell said he was going to start an insurance company. Wade loaned McConnell $2,000, according to Wade, failed to organize the company and returned $500 to Wade, but failed to return the rest of the money.

Reward of $1,000 Offered for Slayer of Messenger

A reward of $1,000 was offered last night for information leading to the arrest of the bandit who killed Jaegerman, a messenger for the Brinks company, a week ago Friday.

The reward was offered by J. W. Allen, president of the express company.

Betty Belohlazek Sleeps in Her Shop to Protect It.

Dawn this morning found Miss Betty Belohlazek slumbering on a counter in her shop song in the Leiter building, State and Van Buren streets.

"She's only 22 years old and so they think they can move her out of her store without any trouble," asserted a baritone voice indignantly over the telephone. "She's there now, protecting her rights."

Betty, reached by telephone, corroborated the voice in soprano.

"Yep," says she, "I found thirteen men moving out all my stuff about 5:20 tonight, although my lease holds until December. I told them to stop. I could take care of four or five of them, but thirteen's too many."

Betty declared she sat on the grand piano, but they carried her out with it. Then, in tears, she rushed for a counter, where she spent the night.

FRUIT GROWERS PLAN FOR OWN MARKET SYSTEM

Growers from every fruit belt in the United States made their first attempt yesterday in Chicago to solve their marketing problems. More than 200 met at the Congress to solve the problem of a national cooperative marketing plan. After the fashion of the grain and live stock committees, the fruit growers will appoint a committee of twenty-one to draft a plan by which all growers all over the country may market their apples, pears, and other fruits.

HERO'S GIFT TO MOTHER STOLEN AS HE IS BURIED

Just before Sergt. John Hoff left his home at 851 North Leavitt street to fight the enemy overseas, he gave his mother a $100 Liberty bond as a parting gift. In 1918 he was killed in the Argonne and the bond became Mrs. Hoff's most cherished possession.

Monday funeral services were held for the sergeant. While the mother was at the cemetery a burglar entered the house and took jewelry and other valuables—and the bond.

"It was of the second issue—No. 275338," said James Hoff, brother of the soldier, yesterday. "He can keep the other stuff if he will only return John's last gift."

100 CENTS ON $1 FOR DEPOSITORS, DRESSSEL PLEDGE

Andrew H. Dressel, bank president, "came back" yesterday and promised to pay his creditors 100 cents on every dollar they had deposited with him. The creditors voted to accept the offer.

The "missing banker" personally made this offer at a hearing before Referee Frank L. Wean on the involuntary petition in bankruptcy filed against the Dressel Commercial and Savings bank. Dressel is head of the bank.

Mr. Dressel's proposition was to pay the creditors, of which there are about 600, not less than 20 per cent cash, and the rest in notes.

One hundred creditors were on hand when Referee Wean opened the hearing. It developed the assets are slightly in excess of $300,000, while the liabilities approximate $200,000. The assets, it was said, could not be sold immediately for more than $150,000.

Sue Soft Drink Dealers for Boozie Sale to Slayer

Suit for $10,000 damages was filed yesterday in Michigan City, Ind., against Arthur and Minnie Behrens, owners of a "soft drink" parlor, by Dr. Orville V. Simmerman, administrator of the estate of Police Captain Joseph O. Simmerman, shot and killed by William Ristau, ex-railroader, Sunday night. The complaint charges the Behrens sold Ristau intoxicating liquor which so crazed Ristau that he killed Simmerman, another policeman, George Spencer, and later himself.

NURSE ADMITS GEM THEFT; BODY MAY BE EXHUMED

Test for Poison Planned in Woman's Death.

Confession by a nurse who had been attendant at the deathbed of Mrs. Jennie Zorge, wife of Robert Zorge, wealthy Board of Trade man residing at 4203 Sheridan road, that she had stolen jewelry valued at $5,000 which Mrs. Zorge had concealed under the mattress of her bed, may lead to the exhuming of the body. The police seek to determine if poison had been administered.

Mrs. Zorge died on March 23. The loss of three pieces of jewelry valued at $7,500 was reported to Chief of Police Fitzmorris shortly after Detective Sergeant George Demar and John Noonan learned that the nurse, Lella Wilson, was living at 1860 Farwell avenue. At the same address lived a man giving the name of George Baker and claiming to be the son of the head of the Baker Tractor company of Detroit.

Trace Nurse's Identity.

They traced the identity of "Miss Wilson" and discovered that she was being sued for divorce by her husband, Jack Warrick, a former Board of Trade man, now a Detroit broker. They were told that an attempt had been made to kill Warrick by poisoning him. The nurse was arrested and her room searched. A receipt for an express shipment to Burlington, Ia., was found. The consignee was questioned. He turned over to the Burlington police a set of diamond earrings worth $5,000. Miss Wilson then confessed the theft, but denied having taken a platinum bracelet set with diamonds and a string of pearls estimated to be worth $2,500.

Opinion of the Physician.

According to Dr. W. W. Hartmann, 5043 Kenwood avenue, who had been treating Mrs. Zorge for ten years, she died of chronic myocarditis. He does not believe anything occurred to prevent Mrs. Zorge's recovery or hasten her death.

Miss Wilson is said to have been a graduate of Grant hospital of the class of 1913 and to have resumed her profession after separating from her husband. Police are seeking Baker.

BOY ON ERRAND STOPS FOR CANOE RIDE; LOSES LIFE

Some mother's son was sent to the store late yesterday afternoon for a loaf of bread, a box of raisins, and a half a dozen eggs.

Some mother's son dallied on the way back home, took a canoe ride in the lake, and was drowned. His body has not been recovered.

He was about 16 years old, wore long trousers, and had a scar under his right eye. That's all that could be learned about him.

The canoe was owned by Victor Barothy, 14 years old, son of Dr. Arpad M. Barothy, 7619 East-lake terrace. Victor had given his friend, John Silsbee of 1442 Jonquil terrace, permission to take the boat out any time.

Never Knew His Name.

"I thought I'd take a little boat ride this afternoon," John said last night. "Just as I was launching the boat this boy came along with his groceries and asked me to take him along. He put down his groceries and got in. I had seen him once before; but never knew his name."

"The lake looked rough, so after a while I paddled ashore. The other boy stayed in the canoe. He went out about a quarter of a mile, I guess, before the boat overturned."

Fishermen on shore saw the boy stand up, then the craft overturned. The boy jumped into the water and started to swim.

They notified the police and Capt. Charles Carland of the Evanston coast guard station.

Find Groceries on Shore.

Paul Torrington of the Beach View Hotel, 13 years old, found the groceries and took them to the store at which they had been purchased. The grocer could not remember the boy who bought the police hope through him, and the groceries to learn the identity of the boy.

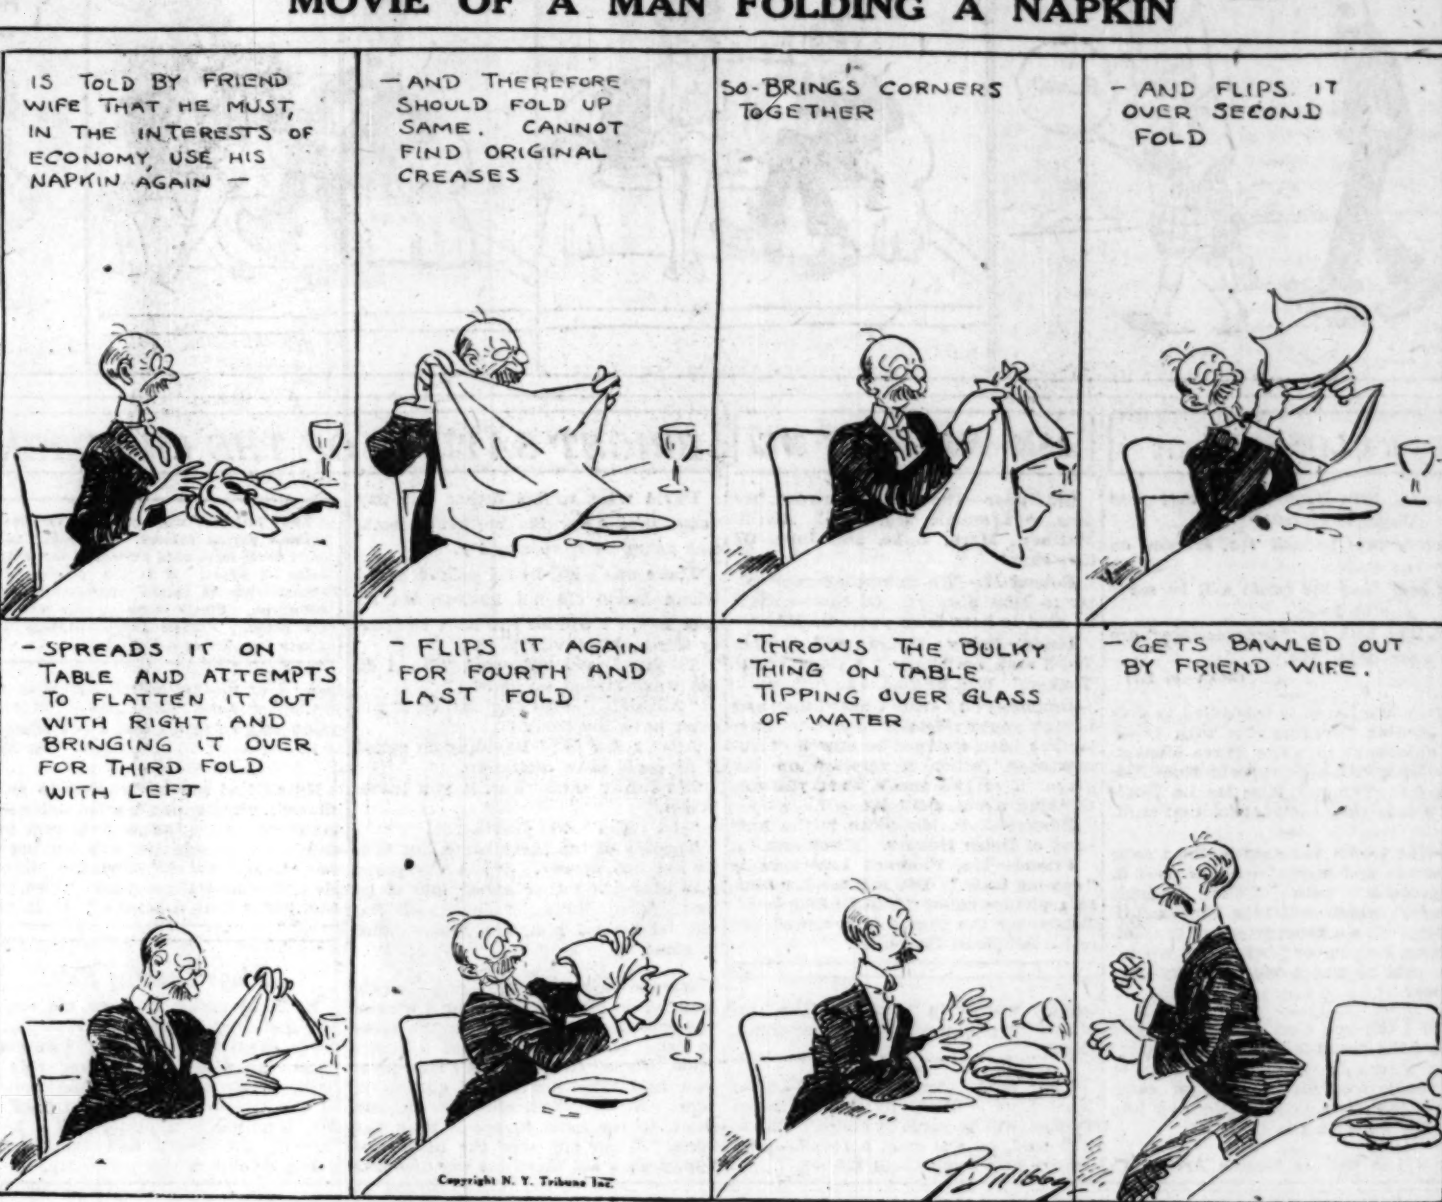

Capt. Carland quit dragging the lake at 3:30 o'clock.

"We were delayed, of course," said Carland, "on account of the very old engine in our boat. I've been trying to have that engine condemned, but the government insists on keeping it. We might have saved a life but for that motor."

1,200 Children Calm with Fire 3 Doors from School

Fire yesterday in an apartment building three doors away failed to cause confusion among 1,200 children marching from the Mark Sheridan school, 533 West Twenty-seventh street. The classes had just been released from the school and marched quietly away.

Some mother's son dallied on the way back home, took a canoe ride in the lake, and was drowned. His body has not been recovered.

He was about 16 years old, wore long trousers, and had a scar under his right eye. That's all that could be learned about him.

The canoe was owned by Victor Barothy, 14 years old, son of Dr. Arpad M. Barothy, 7619 East-lake terrace. Victor had given his friend, John Silsbee of 1442 Jonquil terrace, permission to take the boat out any time.

Seek Identification by His Groceries.

Paul Torrington of the Beach View Hotel, 13 years old, found the groceries and took them to the store at which they had been purchased. The grocer could not remember the boy who bought the police hope through him, and the groceries to learn the identity of the boy.

Capt. Carland quit dragging the lake at 3:30 o'clock.

"We were delayed, of course," said Carland, "on account of the very old engine in our boat. I've been trying to have that engine condemned, but the government insists on keeping it. We might have saved a life but for that motor."

1,200 Children Calm with Fire 3 Doors from School

Fire yesterday in an apartment building three doors away failed to cause confusion among 1,200 children marching from the Mark Sheridan school, 533 West Twenty-seventh street. The classes had just been released from the school and marched quietly away.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Question.

Do you approve of a college education for girls?

Where Asked.

Adams and Michigan.

The Answers.

Frank A. Keenan, 3255 Graves court, assistant superintendent of Illinois Athletic club—A college education is a great help to any one—woman or man. A girl needs it when she enters business. I think that it is important for a woman to have such an education.

Mrs. Frank Prieve, 4330 Cottage Grove avenue, housewife—I have no girls. I am sending my two sons to college. I don't believe it is as necessary for a girl to have a college education as a man. However, if a girl goes through college it gives her a polish she never loses.

Joseph Dainty, 608 Indiana avenue, automobile mechanic—I think a college education is necessary in a girl's life. In fact, anybody without one is very much handicapped. Even if a girl doesn't enter business, an education helps her enjoy a fuller life.

Florice Ward, 2315 Lunt avenue, student—I don't entirely approve of a college education for girls. Such an education is of no advantage to 90 per cent of our girls. All they think about at college is the social life they try to see how much study they can avoid.

H. F. Hawk, Lime Springs, Ia., artist—I don't see any advantage in higher education for girls. A girl taking Greek or any other foreign language in college usually does not make any use of it afterward. Send them to trade schools. That is all right.

Speeders Prove Despair of Auto Law Conference

Speeding and careless motorists are a menace to any community and severe steps should be taken against them, more than forty representatives of motor clubs and safety leagues decided yesterday at a public meeting called by the house judiciary committee to sound sentiment on legislation affecting auto drivers.

Representative S. E. Weinschenk, chairman of OLIVER W. SOLLETT the meeting, said the committee was considering sixteen bills.

Coroner Shows Death Toll Increases.

The delegates were gloomy, however, as regards the possibility of limiting the auto drivers' speed. They doubted it could be done.

"You can't enforce speed laws," said drivers who go fifty and sixty miles an hour and won't stop.

Some voiced the belief mechanical devices limiting speed to twenty-five miles an hour would prove effective. Others scoffed at this suggestion and declared most accidents occurred when the speedometer registered between eighteen and twenty-five miles.

Deaths Increase Each Year.

The coroner submitted some statistics on auto deaths which showed a uniform increase in each successive year since 1905. Some of his figures follow:

Year.	Deaths.	Year.	Deaths.
1905	5	1913	136
1906	13	1914	143
1907	16	1915	234

Five Children Auto Victims in Day; One Is Dead

Five small children were victims of automobile accidents yesterday. George Sarafolone, 4 years old, 5334 North Clark street, was killed by an automobile driven by Ernest Wren of 1031 North Clark street at Thorndale avenue and Paulina street.

Kate Tomasello, 4 years old, 615 Reese street was seriously injured when she was struck by the Chicago avenue patrol wagon in front of 1423 Clybourn avenue.

Jennie Zaleski, 7 years old, 1630 South Union avenue, suffered a possible skull fracture when struck by a "vampire" automobile at South Halsted and West Eighteenth streets.

Eugene Wardean, 10 years old, 7255 Stewart avenue, was perhaps fatally injured when hit by an automobile driven by George Kintz, 6914 Harvard avenue. Kintz was released in bonds of $1,500.

Joseph Hagenaar, 11 years old, 6631 South Oakley avenue, was probably fatally injured by an automobile driven by John Donlon, 2545 West Thirty-ninth place.

Elmer S. Wilkins, 22 years old, 4331 West Twentieth street, died yesterday of injuries received when he was struck by an automobile last Sunday. Joe Pozzo, 2608 Calumet avenue, was booked at the Fifth-street station for assault with an automobile.

Frank Zawaski, 50 years old, 2225 Homer street, was seriously injured last night by an automobile driven by Herman Klein, 2351 Zurich street.

Twenty-Fifth Ward Girls to Dance for Democratic Prizes

Young women of Edgewater and Rogers Park will dance for prizes to-morrow evening at the annual dancing party and entertainment to be held under the auspices of the Twenty-fifth Ward Democratic club at the Broadway armory, Broadway and Thorndale avenue.

Helen Monahan is one of the entrants in the prize dancing. Harry R. Gibbons, county treasurer, is on the committee in charge of the affair.

I'll Not Be Bluffed.

"As a candidate for governor, in my inaugural address and at all times since, I promised the pushing of good roads building," Gov. Small says. "But I shall give my pledge to the people that their money would not be squandered upon the orders of material men, contractors or propagandists."

"These pledges I shall keep. This administration is not going to be bluffed or intimidated or coerced in the matter of letting road contracts regardless of cost. The propaganda-inspired press of the state has filled its columns daily with criticism and condemnation, yet the big-letting of today reveals the fact that thousands of dollars have been saved the state by the administration's determination not to be held up on Feb. 18."

Although contractors generally reduced their bids on Feb. 18, McCall was $88,000 higher on the job.

SEEK NEW MEN IN $300,000 SWINDLE OF GROCERY FIRM

Search for other members of the "ring of employees," that embezzled more than $300,000 from the wholesale grocery firm of Durand & Kasper by pocketing collections, was continued by the state's attorney's office yesterday. Although Max Goodman, former bookkeeper, only implicated himself and four other salesmen when arrested were made Monday night, it is believed that several others were implicated.

Indictments charging conspiracy and embezzlement against Goodman and the four salesmen will probably be voted by the grand jury today. With the arrest yesterday of J. J. Pokorney, a former salesman and collector, all but one of those implicated are in custody. The missing one died seven months ago. The others are J. K. Doctor, 5519 South Carpenter street, Alex Wineberger, 4819 North Sawyer avenue, and J. Landola, 1641 Flournoy street.

TAXI MAN PAYS $5 TO DRIVE THREE MEN TO CHICAGO

Is Arthur T. Goode, Waukegan taxi driver, good? Somewhere in Chicago today there are three fares who'll say he is. Goode spent $5 yesterday for the privilege of driving them from Waukegan to Chicago.

While passing through Winnetka Albert Ottone, village motorcycle policeman, pinched Goode for speeding.

"Twenty-five and costs," said Justice of the Peace Clark T. Northrop. "I've only got $5," was the dismayed reply. "I'll finish the trip to Chicago for $20 if you'll pay now," he said as he turned to his fares. They paid, and he paid the judge.

Change Laws for Greater Safety in Mining, Plea

An increase in pay from $5 to $10 a day for members of the state mining board and several changes in the mining laws making for the greater safety and protection of the miners were some of the legislative suggestions adopted yesterday by the state mine investigation commission headed by Rice Miller, president of the Illinois Coal Operators' association. The meeting was held at the Auditorium.

Marion Scott Will Wed Capt. Soames of Wrexham, Wales

ONE of the most interesting of the many engagement announcements of the season is that of Miss Marion Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scott, of 1214 Astor street, to Capt. John Alfred Soames of Wrexham, Wales. Miss Scott, who is a graduate of Bryn Mawr, is one of the most attractive young women in society, and is a prominent member of the Junior League. She served in a Y. M. C. A. canteen during the war and spent last summer in England. The wedding will take place early in June. Mr. and Mrs. Scott are spending the summer at the Lake Geneva place of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard Carpenter, who have been at the lake for several weeks and will remain there until they go out to Lake Geneva for the summer months.

Tonight will be gala night at the Opera club, when the entire cast of "Dulcy" will be guests. A large number of reservations have been made for dancing and supper.

Mrs. Archibald Freer of 1420 Lake Shore drive will give a luncheon today at the Women's League for Josephine Preston Peabody (Mrs. Lionel Marks), the poet. Mrs. Peabody is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Otto Freer of 81 East 57th street.

Mrs. Edward W. Bailey of 4558 Kenwood avenue will open her house today at 10 o'clock for a card party to be given for the benefit of the apron table of the Friendly Aid society. Mrs. Bailey is chairman of arrangements.

Mr. Marvin Pool, president of the Chicago Wellesley club, will give a luncheon Saturday at the Woman's club for Prof. MacDougal, organist at Wellesley college. Prof. MacDougal will play at a musical to be given Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock under the auspices of the club for the benefit of the Wellesley semi-centennial fund at the residence of Mrs. Francis Nelson, 4900 Deland boulevard.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar W. Johnson, who have had an apartment at 269 East Chestnut street for the winter, have moved their home on the Green Bay road in Lake Forest.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mitchell Carr of Lake Forest will return in May from their winter residence at Santa Barbara, Calif.

John A. Spoor of 1526 North State street has returned from Honolulu and a subsequent visit with his son-in-law, daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton B. Spoor, in Pasadena, Calif. Mrs. Spoor will remain in California until late in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin B. Beach of 20 East Goethe street will return the first of next week from a two months' stay in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Schweppe of Lake Forest have returned from a recent visit with his son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Shedd, who are spending several months in California. Mr. and Mrs. Edward DeWitt Shumway of 190 East Chestnut street are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter on April 1 at Michael's hospital. The baby is to be named Grace Lavinia Shumway for Mrs. Shumway's mother, the late Mrs. Anna Whitehead.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Cuddey Jr. of 774 Lake View avenue are at the Virginia Hot Springs for a week's stay.

The Tribune will pay $1 for every letter published on "The Most Embarrassing Moments of My Life." Address: Embarrassing Moments, Chicago Tribune. Write on the left side of the paper. No manuscript returned.

Didn't seem to mind. Yesterday I met an old schoolmate of the who used to rank high in her class but was rather untidy. I was surprised to learn that she was married though I conceived her and still expected her to be the happy mother of six boys.

"I should think you would be dead," I said.

"No," she smiled. "Come and see my home. You'll find a house just as you'd expect me to have."

"Oh, no, not that bad," I protested, "I nearly died of mortification a second time."

"No, no, not that bad," I protested, "I nearly died of mortification a second time."

The Perfect Hostess. Friends were coming to dinner. I was a new bride, and the combined responsibilities of cook and hostess combined to my pronounced nervousness. The expected guests were a young classmate and her husband, whom I had never met. In greeting them I accidentally kissed both my chum and her husband, an utter stranger, much to her surprise and my horror. I still blush when I think of the strained atmosphere and embarrassment of that dinner hour. M. S.

Northwestern Co-ed Weds Nobleman; Romance of War

EVANSTON friends of Mary Kifer, who attended the Northwestern university school of oratory in 1914, learned yesterday that she had married Marchese Degli Albizzi, an Italian nobleman and army officer, in Erivan, Armenia. He was awarded the Italian medal for valor three times, the Italian military cross twice, and the cross of the crown of Italy once. The couple, according to the bride's letter, will sail soon for Tiflis, Armenia.

JULY WHEAT AT NEW LOW; GRAINS BULGE, THEN DIP

BY CHARLES D. MICHAELS.

Advances in all grains during the early trading were due mainly to shorts covering and to buying on the belief that an upturn was due. A great deal of buying of all grains was on around the top, but it soon gave out and then prices declined rapidly, with July wheat at a new low on the crop. The close was about the lowest of the day, with net losses of 2¢4c on wheat, July leading; unchanged to a shade easier on corn, 1½¢2c lower to 1¢ higher on oats, 1½¢2c lower on rye, and unchanged for barley.

May Leads Wheat Bulge.

Buying of wheat and the early advance of 2¢4c, with May leading, was based on less favorable reports from the southwest and west and from Montana. There was nothing else in the day's news to encourage buying, yet the big shorts covered and many went long, only to sell later. Export business was light. Although 20,000 bush of four were sold at the seaboard late Monday, no export business in wheat was reported until after the close, when the late break caught resting orders from Germany.

Reports of good rains over the southwest and the favorable report from Louisiana in wheat led to the late selling and decline, with a number of the big houses free sellers.

Fair business developed on the break, and some traders who covered May re-sold for July, with a 25¢ discount at the close.

Corn Has Good Bulge.

Corn had a good bulge, mainly on covering and in sympathy with wheat. Buying of May and selling of July at 2¢ difference, the widest so far, was a feature of the trading. Good buying was on early by leading interests, which apparently came out later. The situation on the whole has not changed.

Heavy covering by large local operators, combined with the advance in other grains, helped oats to advance, only to drop and finish at nearly the inside. Local operators were the best sellers on the advance. Exporters were after oats at Winnipeg, but no business was on here.

Local traders sold rye freely and prices declined after a bulge of 1½c, with the close at the inside, July leading.

Provisions Bulge, React.

Provisions advanced early, with hogs and grains, and reacted on general selling. On the break there was buying by a local packer, and the close was at 1½¢ higher on lard, 10¢ on short ribs, and 35¢ on pork. Prices follow:

CASH GRAIN NEWS

Export sales of about 600,000 bu of wheat and 300,000 bu of corn were reported at the seaboard. There was some new wheat sold for July shipment from St. Louis to New Orleans at $1.30 which figured out around 1c over July track here. The export business in wheat was the result of resting orders from Germany being caught. Wheat at Chicago was 1c higher and red 10¢ higher. No. 3 hard sold at 11¢1½c and No. 2 red at 7¢9c over May. Receipts, 19 cars. St. Louis was 10¢3c and Kansas City 10¢2c higher, trading being practically over before futures weak. Omaha was 5c higher to 2c lower. Premiums at Minneapolis were unchanged. Receipts of corn were light, 82 cars, and sold fairly with price 1½c higher early and unchanged at the close. The basis was practically unchanged as compared with May. Outside markets were unchanged to 1½c higher.

GENERAL MOTORS PROFITS SLUMP; REVIVAL IS SEEN

New York, April 5.—[Special].—The report of the General Motors corporation for the year ended Dec. 31, 1920, shows net income available for the common stock amounting to $32,129,848, equivalent to $1.57 a share on the 20,453,453 shares of common stock of $18 par value outstanding at the close of last year. This is considerably below the estimates made for the preliminary report for 1920, issued earlier in the year.

In 1919, the company earned $55,792,971 on the common stock which, if the stock outstanding at the end of that year were converted into 10 certificates, would have been to $3.63 a share.

De Pont Seen Trade Revival.

Discussing general business conditions and the outlook, President Pierre S. Du Pont said:

"In the early months of 1920 there was promise of increasing annual sales and net profits. As stated above, the volume of sales reached this expectation notwithstanding the sudden diminution of business during the latter quarter of the year, but the net profits fell somewhat short of the previous year's record, although far in excess of any other year of the corporation's history. The decline of the latter months of 1920 has continued during the early months of 1921, but as this report goes to press there is evidence that the year will show a substantial recovery and a reasonably satisfactory business, with foundation laid for future prosperity."

Directors of the corporation during the year declared the regular dividend of 25 cents per share on the common stock and regular dividends on other outstanding issues.

Details of Report.

During the year the company wrote off $1,562,187 for depreciation in inventory account up to the close of 1920, but in addition to this there was net aside $150,000 for unforeseen contingencies.

The income account for 1920 and 1919 follows:

C. & E. Railroad Brings

$13,285,000 at Court Sale

The Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad, which has been in the hands of a receiver since May, 1913, was sold yesterday in Danville, Ill., to New York financial interests for $13,285,000 by Herbert Lindahl, master of the federal court.

The only property of the railroad not included in the transaction is a branch line extending from Mokena, Ill., to Brazil, Ind. George M. Murray and Joseph P. Cotter, attorneys representing the purchasers, announced the executives of the road will be retained and steps taken immediately toward reorganization.

How much would you take to look pleasant? Fifty dollars, a hundred, two hundred and fifty, one thousand dollars? All right. Maybe you'll get it! Now, then, how pleasant could you look for $10,000? Pretty darn pleasant, what? A smile that would never come off? Maybe you will get that, too; who knows? Both the smile and the money.

So, how about taking your best face to a photographer today and when he says, "Look pleasant," believe there may be something in it for you. Or, better still, if you have a pleasant look about you as you hang on the parlor wall, don't take the time to go to the photographer again, because he will be busy with other rush orders for this Tribune Beauty Contest. Just rip off the frame and let's have a look. Better do it today or tomorrow, for the contest closes on Saturday.

April 9, and you don't want to wait too late for the mail delivery to carry it to us on time. Ten thousand dollars will be awarded to the most beautiful girl. In addition ten prizes will be distributed in each of the six territorial divisions—the city of Chicago, the state of Illinois outside of Chicago, the state of Indiana, the state of Iowa, the state of Wisconsin, and the state of Michigan. The first prize in each of these divisions will be $1,000, the second $250, the third $100, and the remaining seven $50 each.

The contest is open to every girl, unmarried or widow, who resides anywhere in the five states, except professional beauties. Select a photograph of yourself or some girl friend and write plainly on the back of it the name, street address, and occupation of the entrant. Send the photograph to "Beauty Contest," Chicago Tribune, 7 South Dearborn street, Chicago. Contest closes April 9. Inclose stamped addressed envelope if you want photos returned.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

HEAVYWEIGHT. IT IS a trouble that obese people suffer from is foot trouble. But it stands to reason that if one pair of feet is made to carry around the weight of the whole body, all fairness, be distributed among two or three women, arches are required to do a disproportionate share of carrying. If your arches are just beginning to give away, lose no time in getting into the hands of an orthopedist for temporary relief, at least. That will not reduce your weight! You can't, but the discomforts you are in for your regular three meals per day.

E. B. AWKWARDNESS is due to a nervous tension, as a rule, and self-consciousness, too. What you want some one else is going to do about you or is thinking of you. Relax the nerves. Practice relaxing. Just go limp. That is the best way. I can describe it. There is an extreme gesture in passing things if the hands are vitalized with a grim determination. Relax the hand from the wrist and you can make a graceful movement to it. Then get your mind on something else but yourself.

B. G. I THINK A CREAM is almost a necessity to penetrate the great glands and facial blemishes. Use it at night. Follow with a soap and water wash, warm clear water rinse, then a cold rinse, then an ice rub if possible. Of course, too, you must remove the skin of the rest of the body as you bathe regularly in order that the face of the face be clean and clear.

MRS. X. IT MIGHT DO SOME women, but I don't believe I should in a standardized form of dress. Although I could not advocate it strictly, it might solve our troubles. So we bobbled hair, but some of us would be perfectly frightful with it. Besides, what would we poor females live for if we were denied our hair? Of a future ownership of every hue and cut? Besides, we are more, or less, standardized on the more, anyway, don't you think?

T. T. A BODY NOT BATHED frequently will give forth an unpleasant odor with perspiration. Cleanliness about dress shields, undergarments, and clean clothes at night contribute further trouble. A simple remedy is common baking soda added to the water. Then dust with soap over the affected parts.
